

Overage Blights on Czech Frontier

By the end of 1945, the Czech frontier was blighted by the ravages of war. The frontier was 100 elementary schools and 20 intermediate schools, but religious instruction was practically nonexistent. Two-thirds of the children go with out any religious teaching.

Tito Regime Says Chaplain

Milwaukee, Wis. — (NC) — Revolt against what he termed the Red rule imposed by Marshal Tito in Yugoslavia will sooner or later result in civil war, in the opinion of Rev. John Chokolich, who is back home at Perth after serving as a Royal Air Force chaplain during the war with Tito's Partisans.

Can Church in Poland Hold Out Against Reds?

(This is the second of several articles by Bonnie Curtis, special correspondent of the CATHOLIC HERALD, British Catholic weekly, after her return from Poland, which she had visited under a previous pseudonym by Polish authorities that she should be free to her travels and is interviewing Poland.)

The Catholic press in Poland is subject to censorship and the number of copies sometimes fixed well below the demand. According to reliable estimates, 90 per cent of the people of Poland are Catholics, but only 5 per cent of newspaper is allocated to Catholic papers.

of terror today. When that an end of the present regime is sight, it could be borne. But it has every mark of permanence. Against it, you have the fact that Poland is the strongest country in Europe today from the point of view of Catholicism. It is therefore, morally the strongest bulwark against the Soviet. But should this bulwark be overthrown, Europe will suffer severely by consequence.
