Silenced for Five Years, Korean Angelus Rings Again

Seoul, Korea — (NC) — After a silence of five years, the Angelus rings again from Sacred Heart Church on Cheju-do, a long green island about 50 miles off the southern coast of Korea. A large brass bell, to replace a mellow-toned French bell taken by the Japanese and melted into bullets, was brought to the island by two American Red Cross girls, who visit the troops stationed there twice each month.

Fifth Son Returns Served in Marines

Sanos, Texas — The honorable discharge of Pte. Francis Pagano from the U. S. Marine Corps Reserve during the past week, after two years of service, was in Japan, united the five Pagano boys for the first time in five years. They are sons of Mrs. Joseph Pagano, of Ovid St., who is believed to top the list of mothers here who gave sons to the service.

Franciscans, Dominicans Renew Friendship

New York — (NC) — A seven-century-old friendship between the Franciscan and the Dominican friars was commemorated here when the Franciscans of St. Francis of Assisi Church attended Solemn Mass at the Church of St. Vincent Ferrer, administered by the Dominicans, and later were dinner guests at the Dominican monastery. The Mass marked the feast of St. Dominic, founder of the Dominican Order.

On the feast of St. Francis, founder of the Franciscans, which is observed on October 4, the Dominicans will attend Mass at the Franciscan church and will be their guests for dinner. This good will gesture, which dates back hundreds of years, commemorates the close friendship which sprang up between the founders of the two Orders upon their meeting in Rome in the early 13th century.

Iron Curtain Bars Protestant Group

New York — (NC) — Four American Presbyterians who have returned to this country after a two-month survey of religious property conditions in eight European nations reported here that their way into Hungary was barred by the Russians. Dr. Paul F. McConkey, of Seattle, Wash., spokesman for the group, describing how the Russian Embassy in Prague had refused admittance to them without giving any reasons declared: "The iron curtain wouldn't lift for us. The Russians aren't letting anyone into Hungary."

ALUMNA SERVICE LAUDED BY NAVY

Loyal war service of Nazareth College alumna, Lieutenant (jg) Virginia M. Gould, USNR, and her contribution to the Navy electronics program, is highly commended in a letter to Sister Teresa Marie, Dean of Nazareth College, from the Navy Department Bureau of Ships.

Writing "on behalf of the Electronics Division of the Bureau of Ships," Commodore J. A. Dew expresses "the Navy's appreciation for the loyal service" of Lieutenant Gould. "Miss Gould's services have contributed significantly to the successful prosecution of the electronics program. Her skill, devotion to duty and alertness were outstanding."

The Rochester girl, who is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Stephen C. Gould, 1084 Lyell Ave., has been in the Navy since November, 1944, four months after her graduation from Nazareth. As a member of the Electronics Division which develops, installs and maintains vast quantities of modern equipment in the Fleet and Naval Establishment, she has served at the Naval Supply Depot, Cranfield, Utah, the Electronics Field Service Group, Anacostia, D.C., and in various Naval equipment manufacturers' plants as an inspector.

Since November, 1945, Lieutenant Gould has been assistant personnel officer of the Division.

BISHOP SCORES POLISH POGROM

New York — (NC) — Denunciation of the instigators of, and participants in, the Polish murder of Jews has been delivered by Bishop Theodore Kubacki of Coatesville in a proclamation carried over Radio Warsaw, the Inter-Catholic Press Agency here reports, adding that despite the strong proclamation certain elements in the Warsaw region have attacked the people by name as one who did not take a positive stand on the Polish tragedy.

The perpetrators of this crime, "which smears the wrath of God and men," the Bishop is quoted as saying, "trampled upon the dignity of man and committed a terrible violation of the Christian commandment: 'Love thy neighbor' and of the general commandment: 'Thou shalt not kill!'"

Casting the motives of the criminals as "alien to the beliefs of the Christian community," Bishop Kubacki declared that their crime "has been condoned without reserve by all who profess a least knowledge of the love of neighbor and attachment to the unshakable beliefs and commandments of our fathers and forefathers."

"As a representative of the Coatesville community, believing steadfastly in the Christian and moral precepts," the Bishop appealed to all citizens "to give us help to defend justice and freedom (about Jews), but to refuse them and to combat excessive against the Jewish population," the agency reported.
