CHARITY IN ELMIRA—Jottings Here and There

By MARY E. FITZGERALD

Station C.V.M. — Again bringing you the news of the day. It's gorgeous up here — overlooking the beauty of the surrounding valleys — sort of breath taking — full of peace and happiness.

Tonight for instance — just after dusk settled — the sun — a huge warm ball of fire was sinking — but paused a moment as if to say a friendly goodbye.

We are pretty proud of our Girls' Camp this year. There isn't a complaint about food — rules or program — just a little murmur here and there about the weather. It has been a little cool — but the rain held off — and that's something.

The Campers are getting seven days of program. Classes started immediately after registration on Friday and are now in full swing — and the results are astonishing.

We could scarcely believe our eyes on Saturday when we paid a visit to the Craft Lodge. Clever lapel pins, lovely silvered coins and "shiny" ornaments of felt were completed after just

To Germany

Rev. Felix Newton Pitt, Secretary of the Catholic School Board, Archdiocese of Louisville, who is on route across as a member of the American Mission Society, sent by the U. S. State and War Departments to observe and evaluate the situation in Germany.

The first edition of the Camp Newspaper is going to press as we write this. The name is to be chosen by the Campers — the news items are to be written by them — and the Staff has been chosen from our Senior and Junior Counselors.

Tuesday, the members of the Executive Board of Camp Villa Maria will be guests at dinner and camp fire.

And Thursday evening, all the parents and friends of the campers are invited to the closing of the camp — which will begin officially at half-past seven, that evening.

Incidentally, we hope that each and every parent will plan to be there. We had a sharp twinge at our heart strings when we saw several eager faces faithfully looking for Mothers and Fathers, who didn't arrive for the final Camp Fire at the Boy's Camp.

You were your crucifix proud. By We mean you Ladies of Charity, who helped behind the scenes of Camp Villa Maria these two weeks. Never were the meals so good — Never was the atmosphere in the kitchen so pleasing.

Much of the credit for all this goes to your Ladies, but there's a special credit due Deborah Personius, Dittman and "regular girl" follow — whose sunny smile brightens the kitchen and overflows into the dining room, even when Campers clamored for seconds and thirds.

Especially we thank the Infant of Prague Committee, who not only supplied the food, but also did the shopping for the Dominican Sisters during the week of August 19th. We were doubly appreciative because Camp had us going in more circles than one.

Thanks also to the Honorary and Associate Members from the Committee headed by Mrs. Mary E. Newsum, Mrs. H. E. Connelly, Miss Mary Danahan, Mrs. Fred Battersby, and Miss Margaret Richardson and to the Committee of St. Rose of Lima who have each taken their turns during the past few weeks.

September is peaking through the window — and soon each and every Committee will be reported
