Released Time Plans Advantages Cited by Confraternity Head

Importance of the Released Time program for the instruction of public school pupils is emphasized in the Confraternity Bulletin issued this week by the Reverend C. Vogt, diocesan director of the Confraternity of Christian Doctrine. Defending the Released Time program the Bulletin first states that the Public Schools of the nation do not teach religion in the sense of a definite creed. "Teachers in Public Schools do a lot of good," it is admitted, "they do the best they can with the system. But the system tends directly towards secularism or religious indifference."
