

CHARITY IN ELMIRA— Jottings Here and There

By MARY E. TERRY
Sweet music filled the air as we gathered to the annual meeting of the Camp Villa Marie on Thursday evening. Songs for the occasion were the gay, swinging melodies which had been featured during the last Camp Villa Marie Program.

From the stage of a play which was presented at the meeting, the local Committee on our part in the World Movement. The 50-cent issue of the O. S. Bulletin, which has been granted by the National O. S. Bureau, was presented to those in the camp with enthusiasm.

We don't do all — that is what is disappointing to us — many persons could not wait this far to participate in our annual camp.

Our Lady's Home for the aged is now open for the year. It is a beautiful building, and the staff is very competent. It is a place where the aged can find comfort and care.
