

FOLLOW JESUIT MARTYRS, ADVICE

Lake George — (NC) — The example of the Jesuit martyrs who were the first to shed their blood for the faith on U. S. soil is an obvious challenge to Americans to rededicate themselves to an adventure as glorious as theirs.

The celebration was part of a statewide series honoring St. Isaac Jogues, discoverer of Lake George, the 30th anniversary of whose death is being marked this year.

The Nativity of Our Lady, feast of her holy Name, her Seven Dolours, feast day of our Lady of Mercy — these feast days in honor of Our Blessed Lady, crowding upon each other in this second week of September, impel us to make Mary again the subject of our column.
