Film Presents Catholic As First Man to Fly

Who was the first man to fly? William Wellman of Columbia Pictures says his name was John J. Montgomery and the Junior Chamber of Commerce in San Diego says that Mr. Wellman certainly is right.

Someone is liable to declare that they cannot get away with it. Mr. Wellman has made a movie based on the life of flight pioneer Montgomery which starts with a 'to reward,' 'This is the story of the first man, who flew.' He may have to prove it.

Says Diego, some may argue, on a movie, 'I'm not a movie, I'm a man.' But that doesn't necessarily prove he really was the first man to soar into the air on a heavier-than-air contraption. I'm not saying he was or was not. I was not there.

CATHOLIC GROUP RELEASES MOVIE

St. Paul, (N.C.)—(N.C.)—'Millions Call Him Father' first movie produced by Guardian Films, the new Catholic motion picture company, is ready for release to schools and parishes. It has been announced here.

The new film is based on the life of Pedro de Gante, father of education in Mexico, who came to Vera Cruz in 1523 and established there the first Christian schools in the Western Hemisphere.

With a party of Hollywood pressmen and critics to New San Diego to see Mr. Wellman's film, soon to be released under the title 'Millions Call Him Father,' he felt more secure than Montgomery did in 1833.

MEETS HEROIC BROTHER

New Superior General
New York — (N.C.)—The Very Rev. Mother Marie Conrad of Marymount has been elected Superior General of the Religious of the Sacred Heart of Mary, thus leading of the congregation throughout the world.

When Father Joseph O'Connell, S. J., a Navy Chaplain, was chosen to escort the body of President Quezon back to the Philippines, he had the opportunity of seeing his sister, Sister Rose Marie, a Marymount nun, who is attached to the Marymount convent in Manila.

Mrs. Keyes, Author, Convert Awarded '46 Siena Medal

Swampscott, Mass. — (N.C.)—Mrs. Frances Parkinson Keyes, widely known novelist and convert to the Catholic faith, has been awarded the Theta Phi Alpha Siena Medal for 1946.

The award, presented at a ceremony here in connection with the 15th annual convention of Theta Phi Alpha, national sorority for Catholic college women, is made annually to a Catholic woman who has made a distinctive contribution to Catholic life in the United States.

In the absence of Mrs. Keyes, who is now in Europe at work on a new novel, the medal was received in her behalf by Miss Dorothy Bryant of New York.

Of a New England family but born in Virginia, Mrs. Keyes in her novels has portrayed American life to such effect that her works have been translated into six languages, besides being widely read in English-speaking countries.

Movie Code Change Seen Decency Blow

New York — (N.C.)—What was promptly described as an opening wedge to break down the motion picture producers' code of decency was decreed this week by the Motion Picture Producers' Association.

As the move at once aroused fears of a backward step in the picture industry, 'The Motion Picture Daily,' published here by Arthur Quigley, made the charge that this action was an opening wedge to break down the code under which pictures have been made since the Legion of Decency came into being.

Montreal Summer School
St. Louis — (N.C.)—The Summer School of Catholic Action will be held at Loyola College, Montreal, June 29 to July 6, 1947.

Very Rev. Mother Marie Conrad of Marymount has been elected Superior General of the Religious of the Sacred Heart of Mary, thus leading of the congregation throughout the world.
