BISHOP SCULLY ON RELEASED TIME INSTRUCTION

Bishop Scully Sees Reds Opposed to Released Time

(This important address on Released Time religious instruction was delivered by Bishop William A. Scully, Coadjutor of Albany, at the annual Rochester diocesan conference of the Conference of Catholic Bishops, Tuesday, September 17, 1946.)

The interest of the Catholic Church in education is as old as the Church herself. This conviction of Christ, "teach all nations," gave to the apostles and their successors a divine mandate "to preach the gospel" to all men.

The Literary Circle Americans vs. A.A.A.

By John Connor

Are Americans going to ally by while the American Authors Authority quietly takes control of their right to sell an idea of any nature to any editor?

Are the publishers and editors of a country still free going to pass unnotified this Moscow-motivated and Hollywood-harbored scheme for an American Authors Authority?

By way of review several weeks ago this corner picked up the story of the "A.A.A." from the courageous editor of the Hollywood Reporter...

How can you have a closed shop on ideas? How can anyone and apparently intelligent Americans willfully connive a remedy that is far deadlier than the disease?

My article is critical, let us say, of the rape of Manchuria or the Soviet drive into the Balkans. Perhaps the Authority's board or its small board might not care for the tone of
