CHARITY IN ELMIRA—
Jottings Here and There

By MARY E. FITZGERALD

We just hope that each and every Lady of Charity will take her crucifix "out of storage" before the September meetings of your Committee. It just doesn't seem possible that any Catholic woman or girl, who was charitable enough to become a member of this great international organization, could close her eyes to great spiritual benefits attached to her little Lady of Charity crucifix. Don't let anyone try to convince you that you don't need it. Your every hour of service as a Lady of Charity is more highly indulgenced if you are wearing your crucifix.

Incidently, ours is the only lay organization which has the privilege of using the crucifix as our emblem. And in closing—might we add, it is the most highly indulgenced crucifix in the world.

Time passes so quickly—and eternity is so long. Last Sunday Father Schwab, our Reverend Moderator, speaking in his own parish Church said, "If every drop of water in every ocean in the world was a year or even a thousand years—that would not even be the beginning of eternity."

He did not make this point—but we will—As Ladies of Charity, we have much of the sea of the realm of eternity at our command. Just why don't we use it?

It was welcome news! The Board of Directors of the Community Chest accepted the recommendation of the Budget Committee. They approved our estimate for funds needed for the fiscal year beginning October 1st—i. e. $18,666.60.

Now, all that has to be done is to raise the money for us as well as the other Chest agencies and those foreign relief groups, which are included in the campaign. That means give — give — give. So please, be ready when your solicitor calls.

We can assure you, that Catholic Charities does not care to have its own campaign. You would find it much more costly—so please help us to avoid it.

The attendance at the meeting of the Central Executive Council last Wednesday was gratifying. The reports certainly indicated that many of you had been faithful during July and August.

Confidentially, don't you wonder how some of our Ladies justified their "summer vacation" from every Charity connected service. Do you suppose they are also confusing time with eternity.

The Training Session contained plenty of inspiration—and many concrete suggestions. Our Committee Chairmen should be much better qualified to all about respective work. Just watch for the results.

Welcome to the Monastery Schedule—Members of the Committee of St. John Bosco. This is the first week that the recently organized groups have sponsored the food for the Dominican Sisters. Thanks also for the donation for Camp Villa Maria. It was needed.

Committee Meetings are coming thick and fast this week because of the change in the date of the Council Session.

Recreation Committee was to have a dinner meeting at Rossi's on Monday.

Also yesterday were the Committees of the Infant of Prague, St. Anne de Beaupre and the St. Rose of Lima.

The St. Anne de Beaupre members held a Rummage Sale on Friday and Saturday. Their treasury was much depleted—but never let it be said — that they would let it remain that way.

Next week Margaret Kennedy, whose articles have often appeared in the COURIER-JOURNAL, will take over in reporting the Committee activities.

Margaret is a member of the Secretarial Committee and Publicity on the Ladies of Charity is to be one of their projects—under her capable supervision.

It's such fun — to do all this—we reluctantly give up a part of it to her. We will — we hope—still continue to do some jotting.

You, you do not have to be a member of the Ladies of Charity in order to join the Rosary Confraternity at the Dominican Monastery. Certainly, you can learn all the details by dialing the Mother Prioress at 4509 or calling us at 2-7197.

The feast of the Rosary November — are September 26 to October 6. There will be two services each evening at 6:45 and 7:30 o'clock. Mass each morning will be at seven o'clock —at the Monastery—and if that is not convenient, you may of course go to your own Parish Church.

Fiction Fellowship Goes To Novelist

MILWAUKEE — (NC) — Margaret Ann Hubbard, Duluth, Minn., author and playwright, has been awarded a fellowship in fiction by the Bruce Publishing Company here, the first of three fiction fellowships and one in biography to be given by the publishing company, to aid in unearthing fine new literary and dramatic talent for Catholic readers.

The award was made in recognition of Miss Hubbard's novel on a fictionized life of Blessed Kateri Tekakwitha, which she completed by the end of the year. The Dubuth writer has published four historical novels for children and a number of stories for the Catholic magazine market.

St. Casimir Loop Winner Decided

With the Red Sox team defeating the Athletics, 11-8, and thereby winning the 5-game play-off series, St. Casimir's School baseball league of Elmira closed its season, Monday.

Clinching the game with a 7-run rally in the second inning, the Red Sox were never headed thereafter. Malanoski's wildness contributed to the Athletics' four runs in the first, but he regained control in the later innings and was aided by good fielding by his teammates.

First round of the league began in May with three teams represented. The Red Sox were the first round winners. The Athletics took the second round title.

SODALITY SEEKS MORE MEMBERS

Newly chosen officers of Our Lady of Lourdes Sodality, Elmira, will be installed Wednesday, Oct. 2, at a meeting to be held in the church hall. Officers for the coming year are: Robert Murray, prefect; Ellen Bauer, vice prefect; John Schleifer, treasurer and Maureen Maloney, secretary.

These officers have been conducting weekly conferences for the past few weeks to formulate a program for the coming year. All committee heads and full details of the program will be released at the initial meeting.

A membership enrollment is now being conducted by the Sodalists and it is planned to call on every boy and girl of high school age in the parish and extend an invitation to become affiliated. The invitation is backed by a sincere wish of the priests that those eligible to join will do so without delay.

Formal reception of new members will take place in a special ceremony on December 8.

K. of C. Plan Minstrel Show, Announce Auxiliary Plans

Corning — When the regular weekly meeting schedule of the local council of the Knights of Columbus was resumed last week with Grand Knight Karl Krist presiding, William Corcoran was named general chairman of a minstrel show scheduled for November 21. Mr. Corcoran chose the following as subchairmen: Perry Bradley, entmen; Warren Corcoran, chorus, and J. Colton Marx, tickets.

Mr. Marx, who is also chairman of tickets for the annual picnic which will be held Sept. 22 distributed tickets for that event to the members.

Program Chairmans Joseph O'Hara reported on the year's social activities and Anthony Patoni gave an account of the organization's attendance totals.

Announcements by Grand Knight Krist informed the members that plans are being formulated by Mrs. Michael Meharney to organize a Knights of Columbus Auxiliary, with wives of all members eligible; that installation of officers will take place on September 26; that a first degree ceremony is scheduled for this week, and that the House will be open each evening from now on for the benefit of members.

Vincentian Program For Year Outlined

Corning — Miss Helen Cumiskey, president of the Vincentians Society of St. Vincent de Paul's Church, was in charge of the first meeting of the season in the parish hall recently.

The business of the meeting included the outlining of the program for the year by Mrs. George Mitchell, chairman; a religious discussion, led by the Rev. Frederick Walz, and the appointment of Mrs. Catherine Ward as hospitality chairman for the next meeting, scheduled for Oct. 7. Mrs. Ward will be assisted by Meadames Elgise Nixon, Ann Barrett, Catherine Daly and the Misses Mary and Margaret Crane.

Plans for a hot lunch project for school children were also discussed.

Fordham Scholarship Offered to British

London — (NC) — Scholarships at Fordham University and at the Institutum Divi Thomae, Cincinnati, are available to British Catholic graduates, the Newman Association, British Catholic university organization, has announced.

The Fordham scholarship, offered by the Rev. Robert J. Gannon, S.J., president, will enable the holder to study four two years in the university's school of social service, the association said. The Institutum Divi Thomae offers scholarships and fellowships in different branches of natural science, it said.
