Lecture Series on Church Apostolic to Open Tuesday

Rev. Benedict Ehmann will open a weekly lecture series on the general subject "The Church Apostolic" Tuesday evening, Oct. 1 at 8:30 p. m. at St. Joseph's House of Hospitality, 204 South Avenue under the auspices of the Catholic Worker Movement.

Father Ehmann's talk will be followed by discussion topics which will deal with such topics as the Rule of the Redeeming Disciples as a member of the Knights of Columbus Catholic Speakers Bureau.

Individual talks will trace the doctrinal foundation found in the Acts of St. Peter down through the periods of organization and the great Councils of the Church.

These subjects will be correlated with the work of the laity during the various periods and up to the present day. The discussions will center around the fact that the success of the apostolic age was by the participation in the Mystical Body of Christ, and that the Holy Ghost is its strength.

Each week's topic will be announced in advance, along with discussion topics and questions. Father Ehmann is a member of the Catholic Worker Movement.

HONORED IN CANCER WORK

For "meritorious service" in the American Cancer Society's $12,000,000 campaign, His Eminence, Francis Cardinal Spellman accepts a Certificate of Award pilloque from Dr. Frank E. Adair, president of the American Cancer Society, and General William J. Donovan of the Board of Directors of the Society and noted World War II commander of the O.S.S. The presentation is being made at the Cardinal's Residence, 461 Madison Avenue, New York City.

HOLY FAMILY GRID TEAM WINS

Auburn — Holy Family High Football team defeated Skaneateles High on Friday afternoon by the score of 6 to 0. This was the opening game of the 1947 season and the quarters had to be shortened to eight minutes because of the intense heat. Murphy scored the touchdown which gave Holy Family the victory.

Johnnie Fitzpatrick, Holy Family's fullback, was injured during the game and may not be able to play in the Aquinas game on Sunday. The teams were practically even; Holy Family had five first downs with the opponents having six. Holy Family had 101 yards to Skaneateles' 88.

Skaneateles made most of its yardage on passes, a total of 87 in five completed passes out of 16 tried. Holy Family tried two aerials for 17 yards. Playing in the game for Holy Family were Randall, Burns, Cavanaugh (Captain), Bergan, Feela, DeSole, Ventura, Horan, Murphy and Cranny, and Fitzpatrick. Substitutes were: Joe Fitzpatrick, Mac, G. Gallo, Ringwood, May, R. Gallo, Kenny and McLean.

30 Years Reviewed At Alumni Reunion

Success evidenced by alumni gathered for an annual reunion at the Wishing Well, 1190 Chili Ave., would have been gratifying to the Cathedral High School faculty of 30 years ago could they have foreseen it, the Rev. Charles F. Muckle, a member of that faculty told the alumni Thursday night last week.

Gathered, he noted, were leaders in commercial life, the professional and civic life. A city chemist, a councilman, a clerk, a former Congressman, the president of the Rochester Bar Association, medical specialists, dentists, attorneys, newspapermen, owners of business and men with high positions in industry were among the 50 Former Catholic High "boys," at the dinner. Four past grand knights of Rochester Council, Knights of Columbus were at the speakers table.

Permanent president, the Rev. Albert J. Unger, pastor of Holy Ghost Church, Coldwater, extended annual greetings to his fellow-alumni. Dr. Joseph B. Loser of the class of 1916 and general chairman presided.

Father Muckle, pastor, St. Agnes Church, Avon, who was principal of the school from 1913 to 1917 talked with his former pupils and recalled their names with ease.

Dr. Harold J. Quigley outlined a cultural program for the alumni and short talks were heard from Neil F. Cullins, Lawrence E. Weber, City Councilman Gregory F. Mills, Edwin F. Bolt, Stewart Post American Legion Commander, George J. Nier and Daniel F. Fitzgerald, president of Rochester Bar Association.

Joseph P. Flynn read a letter from Harold H. Harris, cable editor of the New York Times and member of the 1915 class.

Harold T. (Gig) Dempsey and his class of 1917 will handle arrangements for the 1947 reunion.

Irish Prelate Visits Aran Isles to Confirm

London — (NC) — Making the crossing in a life boat, Archbishop Joseph Walsh of Tuam, paid his first visit in four years to the Aran Islands, off the west coast of Ireland where he officiated at the confirmation of a class of 30 children.

The Archbishop drove to Carraroe, where he sailed for the main island, accompanied by gaily decorated boats and canvas currachs, the Irish equivalent of canoes. He was met by a fleet of boats as he approached Kilronan, the island's largest village. Archbishop Walsh preached in Gaelic at the Confirmation ceremony.

Bowling

St. Aloysius H. N. League

Auburn — The match at the day in the St. Aloysius' Holy Name Bowling League was that of Notre Dame vs. Gonzaga. Both teams made the Big Three with scores of 2466 and 2434 respectively. Paul Friedel, the Gonzaga Captain, put games of 221, 200 and 196 together for a total of 618, but that was not enough to overcome the strong Notre Dame team with Jack Friedel and John Terry each getting a total of 656.

The race to be in the Big Five is so torrid that a good score is not sufficient, it must be very good to place; that is why Bill Dunn with 512 and 520 and Tommy Hunt with 518 and 518 for the past two weeks were unable to make the grade. Joe Strapach of the old-grown team put the high single game of the day 236.
