

CHARITY IN ELMIRA— Meetings Here and There

By MARY E. FITZGERALD

On Board Members
To you know that you do not want to be affiliated with the Ladies of Charity in order to be a member. Your donation of money or commodities may be made through our office or to any Lady of Charity.

Of course, it is a little easier if you let us know or cooperate with the Committee which is in charge that particular week. You may also make your donation directly to the Secretary. Any amount reported here—small as the greatest amount. The amount of all the usual day by day items and the cost of repairs must be met.

Again — we must be quick. What would they do if it were not for the Ladies of Charity? — the answer is simple — they would starve. Some of the other could be many other — or much more — and some of them are very poor.

Why come home
And why not say you say? True — the answer may be a little slow in coming — certainly it may not be just what you expect — but sooner or later we hear — "God does all things well" — He knows His own business.

Never was we more convinced of that than we are at this present moment. It is not enough to say "I will be good" — in our heart's pleading we must rather — see the other side in regard to each and every one of these human beings of ours.

Our Lady of the Rosary "Ladies of Charity" — that may be your own and that may be your own — but we have lovely folders in our hands — to be carried to our dear Mother of our Lady.

Charity Group Activity Told

By MARGARET KENNEDY

Last week, Mary Fitzgerald gave us quite a building on taking over the new project for the Secretarial Committee. We don't want to let anyone down, but we have become a bit rusty in the past two years and are going to need a lot of help from the Committee Chairmen.

Each week we are going to tell you something about the different committees and their work. The Secretarial Committee is our own set of well known members. Helen Negaret is chairman and the meetings are held on the third Tuesday of each month in the Catholic Church office. Most of the members are or have been business women. Typing, stenography, and clerical work for the Ladies of Charity and Catholic Charities is one of their projects.

We really work during the week before Camp Villa Maria opens and before the Catholic Charities Dinner and this is a reminder to Committee Members that the Charities Dinner three is showing near and you will be in need of money. We can use a few new members on the Secretarial Committee. If you know any girls who are interested, Mrs. McCormack will be glad to have their names.

The Secretarial Committee meets Monday, Sept. 24, in the Catholic Charities office, Lovett Collins, Chairman, tells us they are planning an all-day Fall and Winter Session. A special party of the Chapter of Columbus is being held on the same program. They are also sponsoring their first CYO dance of the season on Friday night, Sept. 27.

Mrs. Theresa Lynch tells us that the Members of the Friday Sewing Committee have been opening most of their work at home these days, as they have not yet found a sewing room. The committee is now making "nighties" for the Army League. The Thursday Group met this week in the Chapter of Columbus rooms on Sept. 25.

The Board of Ladies of Charity has started a project of collecting books for the patients of St. Joseph's Hospital and have received a nice "Thank-you" note in acknowledgment of the first shipment. The following paragraph is quoted from the letter Miss Devin, chairman of the committee, received from the Rev. Joseph A. Renter, Catholic Chaplain at St. Joseph's:

"We received your kind offering of books this morning and the staff at all the personnel here at the hospital, I would like to thank you most sincerely. In an hour or so most of the patients are required to be quiet most of the time, reading is one of their most frequent means of recreation. Hence the importance of good books. Your contribution will be enjoyed by many people; of that I can assure you."

The Central Executive Council meets on October 2 and Mrs. McCormack has requested that the Committee Meetings for October which have been scheduled before that date, be postponed until after the Council meeting. Chairmen are also requested to call Mrs. McCormack at 7800 and advise her of any change in meetings.

The Executive Committee would like to remind the newly elected Chairmen of their obligation of attending each Council Meeting. This is very much a part of their duties.

There has been an increased demand for rummage in the past few months and a rummage sale is an excellent way to raise funds for our projects. We have a room at North Main Street made available to us by permission of Mrs. Edwards. If you Committee would like to raise some money in this way call Mrs. Edwards (8644), and she will let you know when the place is available.

The Camp Villa Maria Committee will have a program and will not receive their camp awards, may obtain them by calling at the camp office in the "Federation Building."

Forty Hours at St. Anthony's
Forty Hours devotion will open on Sunday at the 10:30 Mass in St. Anthony's Church, Elmira. A solemn procession of the statues of the patron, St. Anthony, will be held at 11:00 a.m. The Rev. Fr. J. J. Keady, pastor of St. Anthony's, will be in charge of the Forty Hours devotion. The Forty Hours devotion will be the precursor of Monday evening.

Regular Novena services will precede the Solemn Mass scheduled for Tuesday evening with a procession and solemn benediction of the Blessed Sacrament.

Forty Hours devotion will be held at 10:30 a.m. on Sunday, Sept. 29, in St. Anthony's Church, Elmira. The Forty Hours devotion will be the precursor of Monday evening.

Corning K. of C. Initiates 9 St. Bona College Freshmen

Corning — Past Grand Knight

Donald Barrett headed the degree team which initiated ten candidates into the local Council of the Knights of Columbus during a regular meeting of the organization recently. He was assisted by Karl A. Krist, acting as deputy grand knight; Albert Lynch, chancellor; Rufus Smith, warden; Michael Bonady, inside guard; Paul Lovette, financial secretary.

The class, designated the Robert Schroeder class is distinguished by the fact that nine of its ten members will enter St. Bonaventure's College in October. Mr. Schroeder, sponsor, signed for membership in the K. of C. all but one of the group. During the meeting Joseph L. O'Hara, general program chairman, reported on plans for the forthcoming Columbus Day banquet. Tentative plans were discussed by Emmett Fitzgerald, Catholic Activities Chairman, in regard to a Communion breakfast which is scheduled to take place soon.

Another introductory class took up the claims and proof of Jesus Christ to divinity. Wherever possible classes were arranged for groups of four or five. Others were accommodated by being accepted for individual work. Still others confined by illness or age were instructed at home.

Concerning the new series of class starting on Oct. 6th, it was learned that they will conclude about Christmas. Classes will be held at 10:30 p.m. and 7:30 p.m. All inquiry letters in the Catholic Faith are welcome to send these classes, and, as in the past, it is noted, an obligation is placed on any applicant to become a Catholic.

All inquiries are made to understand that faith is a gift of God, and at the same time they are impressed with the necessity of honest and diligent search and humble prayer for God's light. When non-Catholic inquirers are shy at requesting to attend, Catholics are urged to accompany them at least in an introductory class.

Madrid — (NC) — The need of preserving at the present time the concept of Integral Catholicism was stressed by His Holiness Pope Pius XII at an audience granted to a group of Spanish university students, headed by Prof. Joaquin Ruiz Jimenez, president of Pax Romana, International Catholic student federation.

According to an article in the weekly Signo, the Holy Father manifested his cordial interest in Spain and discussed the conclusions reached at the 19th Pax Romana world congress held at Salamanca.
