Reds Punish Saxon Bishop, Cow Priests at Gunpoint

BERLIN (AP)—Because he advised his flock to vote "according to their conscience" in the recent municipal elections, Bishop Lorenz Jaeger of Saxony has been punished by the Communists.

PRELATES ASK HUNGARIANS FOR END OF HATREDS

BUDAPEST (AP)—A plea for reconciliation and the burial of hatreds among the Hungarian people is contained in a pastoral letter issued by the hierarchy of this country.

The bells were taken by the Nazis during the occupation of Belgium. They were used for military purposes and to celebrate the victories of the German army.

They were to be returned to their original owners. The German government has agreed to return the bells to the countries from which they were taken.
