A request has been made by the Friendly Visiting Committee and approved by the Executive Council, to change its name to St. Elizabeth of Hungary. This week we are going to tell you about these Friendly Visitors or St. Elizabeth's Committee. The Committee is dedicated to the oldest and first work of the Ladies of Charity, visiting the old and lonely and the sick. Each member of the committee regularly visits one person assigned to her. It might be a young mother with a large family, who finds it hard to get out for a little relaxation. It is sometimes so lonely and so full of man or woman, forgotten by their own. The Friendly Visitors remember these people through their regular visits and with gifts and cards on Christmas and birthdays. One old lady who is alone and particularly fond of playing cards was recently surprised on her birthday when her Friendly Visitor brought two friends and spent the evening playing cards with her.

The Friendly Visitors are bound by the admission of St. Vincent to attend the funeral and pray for the repose of the soul of any person whom they have been visiting since. During the past two years no more than one occasion, members of the Friendly Visiting Committee have been the only ones to attend the funeral of persons whom they have visited.

Girl Becomes Trappistine New York (AP)—Educated at St. Ann's College, College White Plains, Miss Veronica "Gandy" is believed to be the first U. S. college graduate to enter the Sisterhood of the Most Holy Mother of the Sacred Heart, popularly known as the Trappistines. She has become a postulant at the Trappistine convent in Quebec, Que., which is the first step toward becoming a Trappistine.
