Aquinas Institute Plans Bring Out Own Newspaper

"The Aquinas," first publication for Aquinas students of the freshmen year, housed in the school building, LaGrange Ave., made its first appearance this week.

Printed on a mimeograph machine and consisting of two pages, the Aquinas Annex publication is a creditable work for freshmen of a high school.

School activities including studies, miscellanea, football, music and "pop" assemblies are covered in the first issue. The paper will be issued every second Monday according to the staff's editorial. Featured is a message from the Rev. Fergus J. Sheehy, C.S.B., the Aquinas Institute's first dean.

Is the time to learn what the Communists in this country are doing. Remember the old adage: "Forewarned is forearmed."

Budenz now breaks his "year of silence" which he imposed upon himself after Monsignor Fulton J. Sheen received him back into the Church last October. This gifted orator, writer and former editor of the Communist Daily Worker, is going to tell you what he knows about the real dangers of Communism and how to combat this social disease.

A member of the National Committee of the Communist Party in the United States for six years of his ten-year membership, Budenz is eminently well qualified to give you an insight into the plans and methods of the Communists in the United States. His understanding of the dangers confronting us is second to none in this part of the world.

Pastor Fetes Vets Keeping Promise

World War II veterans of Holy Family Parish, Rochester, were entertained Wednesday, Oct. 9, at a party given by their pastor, Rev. William W. Heisel, fulfilling a promise he made them.

Father Heisel planned the promised event in conjunction with the regular semi-monthly meeting of the Holy Family Memorial Post, Catholic War Veterans. Discharge papers of the familiar honorable discharge emblem was the only admission ticket required. Veterans of World War I were also invited.

The Post's charter, it was announced, is being held open until October 23, 1946, to enable all veterans of the parish of either war to make application to join the newly-formed organization.
