Future Hopeful With Bishops in Message For Mission Sunday

A "radiant future" is in prospect for missionaries in far-flung outposts of Catholicism, the Rev. John A. Walsh, diocesan director, Society for the Propagation of the Faith, states in calling diocesan attention to the approach of Mission Sunday (October 30).

Father Randall states: Sunday, October 30, is Mission Sunday throughout the Catholic World. This is the day in the year set aside by His Holiness for us to contribute to the cause of the Missions. Last February, Monsignor McDonnell, the National Director of the Society for the Propagation of the Faith had an audience with the Holy Father. At that time, Pope Pius XII thanked America for her generous support of the missions, and he said, "The work today depends upon generous America."

Everywhere the missionaries are busy clearing away material ruins and repairing moral ones. And everywhere their spirit is equal to the occasion. They have stood their ground not on the mission but on the radiant future that lies before them.

The $100 to be used for the Finger Lakes Council Boy Scouts covers the cost of organization and details necessary to take care of the work in connection with Scouting. At present in the four counties included there are 2700 Scouts and the number is constantly increasing. In Seneca Falls the total enrollment is 270 with three additional troops now being organized.

The total enrollment of Girl Scouts in Seneca Falls is 185 girls, divided into 5 Scout Troops and 3 Brownie Troops. During the past summer 125 girls registered for camp at Cayuga Lake State Park. The Camp provided a vacation for the Scouts and Brownies as well as nature study, handicraft, outdoor camp ability, camp cookery and swimming.

The $100 allotted for the Ovid Street Athletic Field goes to a good cause since it is filling a long felt need in the village. The money will be used to aid the Seneca Falls firemen in completing the purchase of equipment for the field and in erecting a lighting system. During the past season the field has been used, free of charge, by the Seneca Falls Football League, composed of 10 local teams, and has also been used extensively by youngsters for "sandlot" baseball.
