Hollywood In Focus

By W. H. Moorings

One of the most interesting questionnaires in a long time is that just taken by "The Film Daily" of New York. It polls the views of most of the film critics in 12 United States and covers a number of important questions of interest to the filmgoing public which these same critics

Picture Parade

The following reviews give William H. Moorings' estimate of the entertainment value of new motion pictures.

"THE KILLERS" (Adults) Universal. Mark Hellinger has taken Fleming's short story and with writer Anthony Veiller, developed an ending the author called "the best." The rest is a viewer's responsibility, which although concerned with criminal violence, subtly places wrongdoings where it properly belongs and points a clear path towards the right. Swede (convicted slayer by a new name named Blunt Lancaster) is hunted down by two killers and although warned of their intentions, submits to death saying that he once did something wrong and must take what is coming to him.

Let U. S. Set Moral Pace Prelate Urges

Philadelphia — (UPI) — The Most Rev. Richard J. Cushing, Archbishop of Boston, today urged that the United States set a moral pace for the world.

Speaking at the annual congress of the Catholic National Laymen's Retreat Movement, Archbishop Cushing said that America never was content with a moral pace that was not the best. He said that the United States should set a moral pace for the world, and that this should be done by the Catholic Church.

Publishers Get Decency Warning

Chicago — (UPI) — The setting up of an agency by publishers similar to Hollywood's Motion Picture Association of America in order to rescue the book publishing business from the depth of filth, suggestion and sexual promiscuity into which they plunged it in their fight for the almighty dollar is urged in the Catholic Church, weekly bulletin of Holy Name Cathedral here.
