BOY TOWN CHOIR ACCLAIMED HERE

Rochesterians gave Father Flanagan's Boys Town Choir a warm reception at the Eastman Theater last Monday in exchange for a rare musical treat.

Under the capable direction of the Rev. Francis Schmitt, forty surpliced lads from the famed Nebraska institution ranging from 12 to 18 years rendered a part liturgical, part secular program for a responsive audience.

The highly sensitive fingers of John Foley provided an artistic piano accompaniment.

Opening the program on a sacred note, the choristers interpreted Lotti's "Regina Coeli," Palestrina's "O Bone Jesu" and "In Monte Oliveti," by M. Haydn.

Particularly fine was their rendition of Franck's "Panis Angelicus," and Schubert's "Ave Maria," both featuring baritone solos.

The solemn Faure "Requiem" and Reger's Marianwiegenlied concluded the sacred theme.

Secular works included a Strauss waltz and the "Pizzicato Polka," Brahms' "Hungarian Dance No. 6," the "Londonderry Air" of Weatherly and Dvorak's "Songs My Mother Taught Me."

The program was rounded out with "Sing Low, Sweet Chariot," Gershwin's "Summer Time," and Burleigh's "Deep River," highlighted by a baritone solo.

Health Group Sends Out Christmas Seals

Preparations for the mailing of Christmas Seals to residents of Monroe County outside of Rochester got into full swing yesterday when representatives of women's clubs met at headquarters of the Tuberculosis and Health Association of Rochester and Monroe County, to assist with details of the work.

The Seals, sold annually to support the health program of the Tuberculosis Association in the county outside the cities will be mailed to reach residents November 25th, opening date of the nation-wide 40th annual Christmas Seal Sale. The sale will extend until Christmas.

Communion Breakfast Set at St. Salome's

A Communion breakfast for members of the Mission Society of St. Salome's Church will be held Sunday, Oct. 27, in the school hall following Mass and Communion at 7:30 a. m. Mrs. William Straub is chairman of the breakfast, assisted by Mrs. Carl Gilligan and Mrs. Carl Aman.

Japan Catholic Press Lauded by Missioner

ter priest visited the school, he said, he was greatly impressed by the fine work of the Salesians, who had done so much good with so little material assistance.

About his stay in a Japanese prisoner of war camp, Father Margiano is reluctant to speak. The missionary was interned after Italy's surrender to the United Nations and spent two years in a camp in Nagoya.

He was never allowed to speak to anyone, not even the priest of the Society of the Divine Word who came to bring water and wine for his Masses and give him absolution through the bars once a month.

This is his second visit to Rochester. In 1933 he visited Edward Cardinal Mooney, then Bishop of Rochester, here and renewed an acquaintance made in Japan when the Cardinal was apostolic delegate there.

He was the former Rochester bishop in Chicago just two weeks ago, he stated.

Father Margiano made an appeal for old cassocks, shoes and all kinds of priestly apparel, breviaries and old vestments for the members of his order, who are in great need. He asked that donations of such articles or offerings for this purpose be given to the Office of the Propagation of the Faith, 50 Chestnut St., Rochester or sent directly to him at 148 Main Street, New Rochelle, N. Y.

Sadie Hawkins, Thanksgiving Dance Set at Immaculate

Immaculate Dancing Centre will stage its annual Halloween Dance Wednesday evening, Oct. 30 in a Sadie Hawkins-old clothes setting with Joe Nolan's orchestra providing the music. Dancing will be from 9 p. m. to 12 p. m.

The accepted costumes for these dances are blue jeans and white shirts. The Sadie Hawkins custom will be observed with the young ladies asking the young men as partners to the dance and party.

Don O'Connor will be featured as vocalist with the Nolan ensemble and Ray Hackshaw will play piano.

John E. Drew is general chairman, assisted by the following committees:

Refreshments: Nancy Gordon, Barbara Collins, Kitty Daly, Margie Antell, Antoinette DeGaizo, Marion Weiss and Jean Thomas.

Checking: Marie Barr, Dorothy Collins, Marie Ronco, Diana Stangorr, Rita Wilson, Ann Theresa Grace, Joan Resch, Gloria Colluni, Claire Kester, Alice Smith, Arlene Feeley, Louise Woodard.

Stage: Shirely Wahl.

Chaperons: Richard Rehman, Richard Dunning, Frank Sbrillo, Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Corey, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Amick, Mrs. John Robinson, Mrs. Howard Palmer and Mr. and Mrs. John Pond.

The committee is also making plans for a Thanksgiving Dance to be held on Wednesday, Nov. 27. For this party the two orchestras of Joe Nolan and Ned Robinson will play.

Scouts Honored At Holy Rosary

Preceded by investiture services in Holy Rosary Church where 20 boys were inducted into Holy Rosary Boy Scout Troop, a Court of Honor for Troop 101 was held last week.

The Rt. Rev. Msgr. Charles F. Shay, pastor, addressed the troop in the church and the Rev. Paul G. Wohlrab and the Rev. John S. Whalen officiated at Benediction. Recognition was given boys advanced in rank at the Court of Honor in the church hall.

Thirty memberships in Columbus Youth Association were awarded by John T. Nothnagle, Troop Committee Chairman.

At a recent clambake recognition was given to 18 of the scouts for outstanding service to the troop. The clambake was served at Recreation Cottage, Edgemere Drive. Scoutmaster William Cahill and Assistants William Wolter and David DuPre officiated in the recognition exercises.

Bowling

Morphy's 221 Tops K. of C. Leagues

"J. B. LeFrois Pickles" continued to hold the lead in the Knights of Columbus Bowling League by taking two out of three games from Joe Rooney's "Relishes" on Garin's Columbus Civic Centre Alleys, Oct. 16.

Gene Austing's "Waldert Opticals" rolled two games better than Bob Hand's "Pure Quills" who are still in second place.

Paced by President Jack Ward, Neil Collins "Sandwich Bar" aggregation came to life by taking the ever-changing "Supreme Court" five to the tune of three straight games.

Francis Brennan's "Eastwood Shoes" took the odd game from "Slatt's Marble and Tile" in spite of Morphy's 221 effort.

In Clark Nickel's circuit, the Columbia Division, Jimmy Marcille's club, "Beaucaire Radio" is pressing the leaders. Bob Ward, Junior of the Ward trio is setting the pace with an individual average of 175.

Rochester Council bowlers are planning home and home matches with teams from Elmira, Seneca Falls and Medina councils, Secretary Bill Staub reports.
