

Rummage Sale Opens Friday, To Aid Charity Group Work

By MARGARET KENNEDY
The Women's Service Committee of Elmira's Ladies of Charity is holding a Rummage Sale on Friday and Saturday of this week in the Dunn Building on Main Street. Mrs. E. H. Maloney and Miss Rebecca McCleary are Co-Chairmen.

Admission from one to five dollars. The Committee is still accepting orders to supply cakes and sandwiches for teas and parties. The Needlework Guild collections will be completed this week. This is a last minute appeal to all Ladies of Charity to give at least two articles to the drive. If anyone has not been approached it is because her Captain has not been able to contact her and packages may be left at the Catholic Charities office where they will be picked up by Guild representatives.

Welcome home

The Board of Directors of Catholic Charities wishes to call special attention to the Annual Dinner, which is held in connection with the work of Ladies of Charity as well as the work of Catholic Charities and each parish. It is urged to attend if possible.

Parish activities have increased and flourished under Father Rawlinson's direction. In May 1939, the St. Ignatius Society for women was organized and is today an outstanding group in the Catholic life of Corning. The St. Patrick's Catechists, well known not only in this city but through the Southern Tier for their music and marching ability, are also a product of his enthusiasm.
