Mary Kay Donovan
Attains Press Honor

Miss Mary Kay Donovan, senior, of Nazareth Academy, has been awarded honorable mention in Extension magazine contest recently conducted to select teenage Guest Editors for the publication.
Eleven boys and girls were chosen as a result of the 1946-47 Teen Board contest and given assignment by the magazine. The one whose work is adjudged best will receive a free trip to Chicago to work in Extension's editorial department at the close of the school year.
Miss Donovan, it is recalled, was elected 1946-47 "governor" of New York "Girls State," a civic action project sponsored by the American Legion Auxiliary.

Mobile X-Ray Unit to Be at Genesee House

The Mobile X-Ray Unit of Isle Sanatorium will visit Genesee Settlement House, corner of Na-gara and Duke Streets on Friday, Nov. 8, from 6:30 to 8:30 p. m. It is announced by the Tuberculosis and Health Association of Rochester and Ma-cous County, Inc.
Since the Mobile Unit will be located at the Settlement House for just one evening, persons in this section who are 15 years of age or older and interested in having a free chest X-ray are urged to make early appointments.
The Mobile X-Ray Unit's visit will give everyone a chance to make sure they have a healthy chest. Miss Anne Gray, Head Worker at Genesee Settlement House, is in charge of appointments and may be reached by telephone-Stone 4629.
