Bowling, Football Teams Organized by Sodalities

A bowling league is being sponsored by the Sodality of Holy Family Church for the young people of the parish. Donald La Vigne, Roy Vit and Amy Blians are chairmen of the project. Prizes will be awarded the highest scoring bowlers at the end of the season, with the girls being spotted points to enable them to win.

Sacred Heart's Sodality has organized a football team using red and white as team colors. Tally thus far reads five games won and one lost.

Members of Mother of Sorrows Sodality were to resume activities at a meeting tonight (Thursday, Nov. 7. First event of the season will be a square dance Tuesday, Nov. 19, with music by Herb Kern's orchestra at Greece Town Hall, Ridge Road West. Don Hultz, chairman, announces that the proceeds will go for the benefit of the Sisters of St. Joseph who have come to the parish for the first time this year.

St. Andrew's Sodalists will entertain with singing at the County Home next Sunday, Nov. 10.

Niagara to Meet Hobart Saturday

Niagara University — When Niagara University's Purple Eagles clash with Hobart College at Geneva, next Saturday, the Niagarans will be aiming for their third straight victory in a campaign which has seen the Purple win four games while dropping two.

The Hobart College eleven in games to date has been humbled by Buffalo, Trinity, Union and Hamilton. However, this does not mean that the Statesmen should be taken too lightly. In looking over the records of past encounters between the two arch rivals, it can be noted that the Orange and Purple have been on the winning side of the ledger in five out of eight contests. In 1922 during the hey-day of the Little Ten Conference, the Orange outlasted the Purple by a 27-0 score, while in the last two meetings of the former conference rivals, the Eagles won by 12-7 and 18-7 scores.

Reports from both schools indicate that injuries are at a minimum and consequently both Jim Moran head coach at Niagara and Eddie Tryon head mentor at Hobart will be able to field their strongest elevens.

Holy Family to Meet Oxfords

In a benefit game, Holy Family football team will meet the Oxfords Sunday afternoon at 2:30 p. m. at Franklin Field. The game will be reminiscent of the old Oxford-Russer series with "Dutchtown" stalwarts pitted against "Butterfield's Best," the latter "Oxford" affiliation.

Coach Buddy Legler's "Dutchtown Downers" have won four games to date, lost one and tied one, in their last encounter, the Oxfords met defeat by a 7 to 0 score. Captain of the Holy Family eleven for Sunday's game will be Art Guentner.

Championship Pocket Billiard Matches Set

The World's Championship Pocket Billiard Match between Willie Mosconi, the champion and Irving Crane, challenger at the Elks Club Auditorium, Nov. 7, 8 and 9 is being sponsored by St. Margaret Mary Men's Club in collaboration with the Billiard Association of America.

Proceeds will be used to help equip suitable men's quarters in the parish's future building.

Afternoon play begins at 2:30 p. m. with evening matches starting at 8:30 p. m. Reserved seats are available by telephoning the Elks Club, Stone 492.

Good Shepherd Guild Holds Card Party

The annual card party of the Good Shepherd Guild of Holy Angels Home is to be held tonight, Thursday evening, Nov. 7, at St. Monica's hall, Genesee Street.

Mrs. Walter Gessner is chairman, Mrs. Eugene Fess, co-chairman, assisted by committees headed by the following:

Tickets: Mrs. Eugene Fess; refreshments: Mrs. Clarence Deckman; tables and reception: Mrs. Paul Keeler; cards and tallies: Mrs. Vernon Halloran; table prizes: Mrs. C. Arnold Werner; door: Mrs. John Crever; publicity: Mrs. Fred J. Belmont.

Bowling

Joe Rooney's Team Features K. C. Loop

Featuring the Oct. 30 rolling in the Knights of Columbus League was the double victory of Joe Rooney's "Horse Radish" five over Jack Kinney's youngsters, the "Neil Collins' Sandwich Bar" club. Games were rolled on Joe Garin's Columbus Civic Centre lanes.

Tom Wandke's 501 effort was largely responsible for "Waldert Opticals" capturing three straight games from "Statt's Marble and Tile."

Van Slyke Webster's "Flying Dutchman" had a 539 total. Al Kiem, Cal Lofink and Skelly were poison to Bob Hand's highly touted "Pure Quill" aggregation, the latter dropping three games to the "Eastwood Shoe" crowd.

Rocco Natalie's "LeFrois Pickles" held on their slim lead of first place by taking the odd game from "Frank Scholand's Bottery" team.

Within the Aquinas Institute gym the basketball has been brought out with the attendant race-record breaking grid season barely over . . . Coach Harry Wright who will be on the Notre Dame bench at the Army game Saturday is lining up his cagers for the fall season . . . The Aquinas gym will be too small for basketball what with over 1000 students to say nothing of the subway alumni . . . Canadian football has taken the place of the American game at Assumption College, returning students report . . . Rules do not permit any student over 21 on the varsity . . . "Old fellows" play the six-man football . . . Assumption conducted by the Basilian Fathers has an up and coming court team . . . Basketball will be in the news in Auburn next week . . . A Catholic War Veteran sponsored professional team, the Wainwrights will play the Chicago Harlem Globetrotters . . . St. Bonaventure's game with and victory over Canisius College in a resumption of Little Three competition after a four-year lapse set some kind of attendance record . . . Attendance was 35,000 and score 13 to 0 . . . Boston College gave New York U. footballers their most severe setback with a 73 to 6 victory, Saturday . . . Notre Dame will meet the Army after administering a record setting 28 to 0 defeat to the Navy . . . Georgetown downed George Washington, on the gridiron by 18 to 6 . . . Holy Cross scoring 21 nosed out Brown with 19 . . . Niagara U. 19 was better than Waynesburg's 6 . . . Fordham's de-emphasized team lost by 0 to 68 piled up by Pen State . . . Looking out the window, results of fire in Rochester's Elm Bowling Hall will keep many bowlers idle in weeks to come.
