Madrid — (NC) — A Requiem Mass for the repose of the souls of Bishop Manuel Borrás, Auxiliary of Tarragona, and 200 priests of the Archdiocese who were slain during the Spanish civil war was offered in the presence of His Eminence Emmanuel Arcobachens, Archbishop of Tarragona, at his cathedral church.

Catholic Life Strong In Inflated Shanghai

By THE REV. PATRICK O'CONNOR, S.A.C. (Special Correspondent, N.Y.C. News Service)

Shanghai — (Radio NC) — Scores in Shanghai and you literally blow in 650 dollars' worth. That's what your hand-scratched costs here. But don't worry. The exchange rate is 1,300 Chinese dollars for one American dollar, so your hand-scratched costs only 50 cents in United States money.

Inflation is just one of the features of Shanghai's life. It is striking, this inflation, turning there after nine years. Shanghai, China's gateway, formerly a city with a substantial foreign concessions and largely under foreign control, is now entirely under Chinese administration.

We Did Chain The Bible

By Rev. Richard Ginder

It is often said of the Chinese that during the Middle Ages they kept the Bible chained to the wall. But let's not think of the Bible as being chained in such a way that no one could open it. The chain, when there was one, ran from the book to the reading desk on which the Bible lay, so that no one could walk off with it.

French Catholics Urged to Vote

Paris — (RNS) — Emmanuel Cardinal Suhard, Archbishop of Paris, has advised French Catholics to vote justly and intelligently in the forthcoming national elections. The cardinal termed failure to vote at that time "inexcusable."

American Families Asked To 'Adopt' Austrian Child

New York — (NC) — An urgent appeal for American families to "adopt" Austrian children, whose lack of food and clothing prevents them from attending school, has been made by American Relief for Austria here. Pointing out that children suffer much more than their adult compatriots from the severe lack of food and inadequate clothing supply in that country, the organization warns that without aid from generous Americans many of these children will not survive the winter.
