Spiritual Bouquet Practice Set for Ladies of Charity

By MARGARET KENNEDY

The ladies of the Spiritual Bouquet Practice Set for Ladies of Charity held a Halloween Party last Monday evening at the home of Mrs. J. J. Sullivan, 125 W. Second St. All the guests came in costumes and we hear most of them were extremely funny. The house was decorated in keeping with the Halloween theme with ghosts and goblins in every corner.

During the evening cards and refreshments were enjoyed. Mrs. John McCormack and Miss Mary Fitzgerald were guests of the evening. The women are so busy with their other commitments that it has become necessary that there is scarcely a week that they don't have at least one large order.

Start Fifth Novena To Mother Cabrini

Fifth novena in honor of St. Frances Xavier Cabrini will begin in SS. Peter and Paul's Church, Elmira, Sunday, Nov. 10, and terminate Sunday, Jan. 5, the Feast of the Holy Name of Jesus.

The parish concluded its fourth novena honoring Mother Cabrini, first-American citizen canonized, last Sunday, Nov. 3.

After each service of the novena, individual blessings are given with a relic of the saint.

JESUIT FATHER GIVES CATHOLIC NURSE RETREAT

Members of the Elmira Unit, National Council of Catholic Nurses spent Sunday, Nov. 3, in a retreat. The day began with the celebration of Holy Mass at eight o'clock in Little Flower Chapel, Dunn memorial building.

The Mass was offered for the members of the unit by the Rev. Thomas Gavin, S.J., of Canisius College, Buffalo. Father also conducted the conferences throughout the program until three o'clock, when Solemn Benediction of the Most Blessed Sacrament was given by His Excellency, Bishop Kearney, assisted by Father Gavin as deacon, and the Rev. J. Edward O'Brien as sub-deacon. The Rev. Dr. John E. Mawry, secretary to Bishop Kearney, acted as Master of ceremonies.

Father Gavin's conferences consisted of vivid expositions of our Lord as a living Person, making applications of our Lord's teachings to the life of the nurse at all times. Father Gavin had a special appeal to the nurses since he has for some time understood the place of the nurse in the home.

Bishop Kearney, in a brief talk to the group, reminded them that this day of recollection had brought its own reward to those who had made the effort to attend it. It was a question of "waiting and seeing" the visible workings of a day given over to the contemplation of spiritual things. In this instance, as they were applied to the life of the nurses. At the end of his address the Bishop imparted his blessing to the entire group.

Corning Weddings

Palmer's Baby
Corning — Miss Pauline M. Palmer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Palmer, of Bath RD 2, became the bride of Carl E. Blisby, son of Mr. and Mrs. William C. Blisby, Corning RD 1, Saturday, Nov. 2, in a ceremony performed in St. Vincent de Paul's rectory by the Rev. Joseph V. Gulliford, pastor.

Attending the couple were Miss Madeline Blisby, sister of the bride, and Miss Clayton Palmer, brother of the bride.

A luncheon was served at the home of Mrs. Berdette Browner, of Bath, Sunday, Nov. 3, following the ceremony. Later the couple left for a week's trip. Upon their return they will live at the home of the bridegroom's parents.

Elmira Catholic High-Lites

By VIOLLET BOYLE

Our Lady of Mercy School held its monthly meeting on Oct. 29 in the Assembly Rooms. The meeting was opened with the spiritual reading by James Owens and the mental prayer by Mary Teresa Costello. Sister Francis O'Connell explained about an award for scholars and then the meeting continued in parliamentary procedure.

When words were made for Catholic Book Week and the question of food was settled. The meeting was closed with the reading of "The Litany of the Blessed Virgin Mary" after which refreshments were served.
