Catholic Life Strong In Inflated Shanghai

By THE REV. PATRICK O'CONNOR, S.S.C. (Special Correspondent, N.C.W.C. News Service)

Shanghai — (Radio NC) — Space in Shanghai and its vicinity now is 600 dollars' worth. That's what your hand-billed costs here. But don't worry. The exchange rate in 1945 Chinese dollars for one American dollar, so your hand-billed costs only 25 cents in United States money.

Inflation is just one of the features of Shanghai's life that strikes the correspondent returning there after nine years.

Shanghai, China's gate way, formerly a city with 1,000,000 inhabitants and largely under foreign control, is now entirely under Chinese administration.

With Major E. C. We doing an admirable job despite post-war conditions.

Along the Bund, the commercial head with many of the banks, the "China House" from America and Europe; Hamilton, white and red, Jewish refugees from Germany and Austria, as well as Chinese civilians and army men, American uniforms are seen in the crowds, but American flags and the stars and stripes are prominent in the congested thoroughfares.

The Chinese display a keen interest in the progress of the war. They are particularly interested in the progress of the American forces in the Pacific.

Back on Darts

The key to success in playing "The Divine Comedy" is to be played by the Rev. Gerald G. Walsh, S.J. in his new popular biography of "Dante Alighieri: Making of Christendom" which has just been published. Walsh, a distinguished Oxford scholar and historian, is a former professor of medieval history in Fordham University Graduate School, and is now editor of "The Atlantic Monthly".

Have you ever seen a pencil chained to a telephone or a phone directory chained to the back? The idea is not to restrict the use of the pencil or phone directory, but rather to keep them in their proper place so that they will be handy for you when you need them.

In the Middle Ages, the Church had even greater reason to chain the Bible, for while a 'phone directory or a pencil may be worth only a penny or so in the modern world, the Bible was worth at least a thousand dollars in material value.

Such a copy of the Bible was made by hand, the work of monks and priests who devoted a great part of their lives to producing the Word of God.

Three years ago by the centennial of the Rev. Bernard's death, the book observed the 100th anniversary of his founding. Officially opened September 24, 1943, the Golden Jubilee was postponed in 1943 because of war conditions and the absence of many of his alumni in the armed forces of our country.

The Ordinary of the Diocese, the Most Rev. James E. Keenan, had decided on the postponement. "Dante Alighieri" is a real homecoming of Rochester alumni from all parts of the country has gladdened the heart of their Alma Mater.

American Families Asked To 'Adopt' Austrian Child

New York — (NC) — An urgent appeal for American families to "adopt" Austrian children, whose lack of food and clothing prevents them from attending school, has been made by American Relief for Austria here.

Pointing out that children suffer much more than their adult compatriots from the severe lack of food and inadequate clothing supply in that country, the organization warns that without aid from generous Americans many of these children will not survive the winter.

Though a diet of 1,800 calories a day is considered a required minimum for children, the food supply in Austria is down to 1,100 a day, the organization states, adding that besides the lack of clothing there is also no fuel for homes, schools and hospitals.

The relief committee, which has a large list of the names and addresses of needy Austrian children with a complete description of each child, is urging every American family to "adopt" a child and provide it with additional food and clothing.

Mass Said for Clergy Slain in Spanish War

Madrid — (NC) — A Requiem Mass for the repose of the souls of Bishop Manuel Borrás, Auxiliary of Tarragona, and of 238 priests of the Archdiocese who were slain during the Spanish civil war was offered in the presence of His Eminence Archbishop Arcediano, Archbishop of Tarragona, at his cathedral church, a monument bearing the names of the priests slain during the war.

The memory of 120 priests and seven seminarians from the Diocese of Ciudad Real, who lost their lives during the civil war was honored at a Requiem Mass in the diocesan cathedral, the remains of Bishop Eustaquio Nieto Martin of Sigüenza, who was killed by leftists on July 27, 1936, were solemnly translated to the reconstructed cathedral of Sigüenza.

These critical times with which we are now confronted, Mr. Mooney said, "require commendable leadership from men of genius, courage and inspiration, men with moral stamina."

Mr. Mooney said that the impact of Father Flanagan's personality has influenced the lives of hundreds of young men who, but for his helping hand might have fallen in the struggle against overwhelming odds due to conditions beyond their control.

The Boys Town founder established the first home for abandoned, homeless and neglected boys in 1917 with $60 he had borrowed and five boys — three, who were placed in his custody by a juvenile court, and two from the streets. Among these present at the ceremony was EUGENE J. ALLEN, Omaha attorney, former Supreme Knight of the Knights of Columbus and a member of the board of directors of Boys Town.
