Wanted--Home For Triplets

If you want to help out the Stagliano triplets -- and them a home -- That's the plea of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Vincent Stagliano who live with their two other sons, Anthony, seven, and Richard, five, in four rooms at 1433 Clifford Ave.

The triplets, are reported doing well at the General Hospital, by Dr. B. Louis Tomasevich, who delivered the two boys and a girl on October 2. Dr. Tomasevich well knew what to expect as a result of Army planes he had taken prior to the birth.

Mrs. Stagliano says that the girl will be christened Lucille Ann and the two boys, Ronald and Donald, when they are baptized at Our Lady of Mount Carmel Church upon their release from the hospital.

Everything is coming along fine -- except for that house. At the present time the four Staglianos are living in an apartment comprising a kitchen, living room and two bedrooms. When the triplets come home there will be seven Staglianos and the present living quarters are just too small. The family needs at least five and preferably six rooms.
