DESALES HOLDS GHS TO 44-30 IN STIFF GAME

Geneva — Offering stiff opposition to Geneva High School's football representatives, Desales High five went down to defeat, 44 to 30 in a hellish-packed game at the Armory. Geneva leading over despite a turnover fumble.

Against Coach Jim Laramie's all-terrier squad, the Desales team outscored the GHS team 13-10 in the third and fourth periods. With four lettermen from last year's team the Saberhounds were not outstanding and gave a good account of themselves against the reserves at the end of the game.

The reserves couldn't pull hold their own against Desales' hard-working combination of Buddin, Lynch, Sweeney, Magie and others.

Fred Golding, GHS guard who played in place of Captain Tom "Wheat" had up with bronchitis, netted eight points, including three nice shots from the floor. For Desales Bill Crowley stood out with 14 points for the game.

Lacking reserve strength Desales regulars had to carry the burden and did mighty well against outnumbering opposition.

Bucklin was in there playing every minute. Stevens and Nagle gave Geneva's backboard pair of Nastor and Golding plenty of competition. Lynch was a steady playmaker for Desales while Brundt and Gilberts alternated well at guard posts.

Holy Family Defeats Skaneateles High, 23-8

Auburn — Prepared to give the fast Aquinas Institute of Rochester a stiff battle on Friday night, Dec. 6 in Aquinas gymnasium, the Purple and Gold clad team of Holy Family High School has already won two games and lost a heart-breaker in the last few minutes of play.

Making their home debut Saturday night Coach Al Crowley's Holy Family High 23 to 8 on Central High Court before a packed house.

The stout fight of the Holy Family outfit in coming from behind 8 to 3 at the first quarter to emerge on the large end of the final score is a tribute to the team's staying powers.

Another factor in the victory was Coach Al Crowley's between-halves coaching. Changes he made in the lineup proved effective. Holy Family scored eight field goals with all of them the work of Captain John Moran. He led with a total of 13 points and Richards of Shan-

20 K. of C. Bowlers
To Roll In Buffalo

President Jack Ward of the Knights of Columbus Bowling League will lead a delegation of 20 keglers from Rochester Council going to Buffalo to roll against the Bison City knights in first half of a home and home series. The Buffalo matches will be held on the Delaware Ave. home drives.

Second half of the match will be held on Joe Garcia's Columbus Civic Centre lanes sometime in January.

Thanksgiving Eve's shelling in the K. of C. League was comparatively light. Gene Austin's 544 enabled his "Belmont Optic" five to defeat "Scholastic's Bowler," 3 straight games. George Mattioli's "Techno Pickles" champion of last year still the club to beat this season managed to edge Jack Kinney's "Neil Collins" "Swallows" 1st team winning the odd game after a bitter struggle. Gus Nolan and Nelson Boehler's pin-picking was responsible for the verdict.

With Cal Lollino leading the attack Francis Brennan's "Eastwood" aggregation annexed two of three games against J. Van Slyke's "Rooney's Horsewhalers."

Karl LaBoeck's "Stall Tide" and "March" took 3 games from Bob Hagan's "Pure Quill."

In the Knights division where Jack Graham is taking even the roost Ray Hirschman's "Vocem" and Joe Novello's "Wolves" and Tom Cannone's "Marty" cracked into a tie for first place. "Techno Pickles" are testing in third position closely followed by Van Lier's "Oven Bakers" and "St. Paul's."
