Aquinas Totals 44 to Holy Family High 19

By DAN "SKIP" LEHMANN

Bowling into the win column with a bang last Friday night, Aquinas' scrappy little quintet subdued Holy Family of Auburn to the tune of 44-19. Running in high gear all night, the maroon hoopers easily outpointed their Auburn foes. The Irish surged into the van during the first few minutes of play and stayed out in front throughout the heated game.

Aquinas' zone defense worked effectively on the small Dewey Ave. hardwood and their fast breaking offense was the main reason for their decided margin in the scoring department. The capacity turnout watched color-ful Joe Dimino account for al-most half the Aquinas markers.

Dimino began to amass his total as he intercepted a Purple and Gold pass, streaked down the court and laid the leather up to start the Irish scoring. Zimmer and Talinto followed through to close the first pe-riod score and give Aquinas a 12-4 lead.

The same caliber of ball was played in the second quarter and the score read 21-8 at halftime as the Aquinas dribblers con-tinued their scoring spree. Many of the offensive as well as de-fensive errors evident in the Franklin game were completely lacking from the maroon play in this contest as is shown by the third period score of 37-18.

The second half, however, was a very spirited battle. A few players had to be separated as the play became hectic in the latter part of the game. How-ever the maroon forces emerged on the long end of a 44-19 count.

Fitzpatrick and Capt. Nielson shared scoring honors for Holy Family garnering 10 counters between them. Standouts for the Irish were Dimino, Sweeke and Talinto while Smith, Naples and Falic han-dled the ball smoothly in their playmaking.

Intent on winning their sec-ond victory the Irish will invade Wellsville Saturday for a game that is expected to give Aquinas no easy time. Wellsville is known to have a powerful quint and are just as confident as the Irish. Aquinas returns to the Sports Arena the following week for a game with Webster which will be another tough one for the Irish.

Buffalo K. of C. Pinmen Lead Rochester Keglers

Terrific shelling of the maples on their Delaware Ave. home drives enabled the Buffalo Knights of Columbus bowlers to pile up a substantial lead of 642 pins in the first half of the home and home match with the Rochester knights, Sunday.

Buffalo's Number 1 team came through with a sterling perform-ance of games hitting 910, 1013 and 901 for a 2830 total. The Number 2 team came through with 2748 pins for three games, including 965, 907 and 876 tallies.

Top team from Rochester hit 852, 968 and 858 for a total of 2687. Number 2 team gained a neat 2588 for their efforts.

Individual scoring found three Buffalo men on top. Dick Herd-lein, Sr., had top honors with 628. Second and third went to Charles Eich and Stan Palermo with scores of 615 and 604 re-spectively. Bud Bonthe rolled 568, Vic Lomasulo 546 and John Longo 578.

Carm Austing of Rochester Council lived up to his reputa-tion with 222, 190 and 173 set-ting the pace for Rochester bowl-ers with a total 583. A 230 game gave Tony Camello a 530 score for second honors. His brother Frank rolled 527 and Al Woerner 528 totals.

Return match will be rolled on Columbus Civic Centre alleys on Sunday afternoon, Jan. 19.

League Scores

The Knights' Division was the big noise at the Columbus alleys in the Knights of Columbus League matches Dec. 4. Jack Hill of "Richter's Auto and Fen-der Repair Works," had three notable drives of 200, 190 and 190 for a grand total of 580. Vic Love found himself when he knocked down the pins for a 533 series. His "Owen Gas and Service Station" five upset all pace performances by defeating the League leading "Camello's Market," two out of three games.

Woerner's "Rochester Novelty Works" outfit took command of first place by defeating their op-position two out of three games.

Ade Ianna's superb perform-ance of 19 straight frames with-out a miss was the leading fac-tor in his team's fine showing. When the lowly "Mahon and Schroeder Coal and Coke" five took Dr. Mastello's "Gerhard Op-ticals" into camp for three straight games.

Individual honors went to Frank Camello who had a high individual score of 245.

Feature games in the Columbus Division found Gene Austing's "Waldert Optical" team still pressing the leaders by tak-ing Bob Hand's strong "Pure Quill" five, two out of three games.

Recco Natalie's "LeFrois" club still the fast team in this division whitewashed Joe Roo-ney's "Horseradishes," three straight games.

The much improved "Stan's" Tile and Marble" team took three games from Francis Bren-nan's "Eastwood Shoes" making it their sixth consecutive game. In the final stanza, "Frank Scho-lasz Shoes" took the odd game from "Neil Collin's Sandwich Bar" five.

'EARLY MAILING' STRESSED

"Early Mailing of Christmas cards and gift packages is more imperative than ever before," Postmaster Donald A. Dailly said today.

Reasons for the need of pub-lic cooperation in this year's "Mail Early" campaign of the postoffice are cited by Postmas-ter Dailey.

Mailings for distant states should be well on their way as of this date and Christmas greet-ing cards for local delivery should be mailed not later than Dec 16 to assure delivery before Christmas day.

The postal services together with the nation's transport sys-tem, both mail and air, which are now carrying the heaviest loads in their history, face a de-livery problem that is most acute from many angles, the Postmaster points out.

"Address your mail plainly, wrap securely and it is a good idea to enclose the address in-side the package. In the event the wrapper becomes torn or mutilated," he stated.

"Use the new air mail rate of $.05 per ounce for speedy ser-vice to greet your friends in dis-tant cities. Twenty-two mail planes leave Rochester daily.

"Use the Postal Zone Number on all your mail. If you haven't secured your zone book do so now. Zone books are available at the main post office and classi-fied stations, or write or phone the zone department and we will gladly mail you a book without cost.

"By carefully observing the mailing dates and addressing re-quirements, everyone can do much to insure prompt handling of Christmas mails.

"The Post Office Department will do everything humanly possi-ble to move the tremendous volume of mail received this Holiday season.

"Insure all valuable articles. Put the greeting cards in sep-arate bundles, local and for out of town.

"If mails become a last minute deluge it will be a physical im-possibility to move the mails. Cooperation will give the holi-day its full significance."

Postmaster Dailey noted that restrictions on domestic and for-eign mailings have been removed.
