THRONG ATTENDS TRIDUUM HELD AT ST. ANN'S

Hornell — A triduum for all women and girls of St. Ann's parish in preparation for the Feast of the immaculate Conception which closed Sunday afternoon drew a large attendance.

Evening services held Wednesday, Thursday and Friday were conducted by the Rev. James V. Lowery, C.S.C. Father Lowery is assigned to the Eastern Mission Band of Holy Cross Fathers with headquarters in North Easton, Mass.

Devotion of the Family Rosary was stressed during the triduum as a powerful means of securing the three-fold intention for which the triduum was offered: the return of all men to Christ, a just and lasting peace, and harmony, understanding and cooperation between nations.

The Rev. Andrew T. Dissett, pastor, when arranging for the triduum at St. Ann's, advocated prayers to the Blessed Mother of Christ as "a most efficacious manner in which to combat the spread of Atheistic Communism which threatens not only Christianly but the very roots of civilization."

Morning Masses were celebrated at 6 a. m., 7 a. m. and 8 a. m. during the triduum and many received Holy Communion. Following the solemn closing Sunday at which Father Lowery imparted the Papal Blessing, a meeting of women of the parish and organization plans were begun to increase activity in the Rosary Society.

Movies based on the Nativity as well as short subjects were shown by Father Dissett to the large group present.

Racial Justice Declared Needed

Ogdensburg — (NC) — Charity cannot replace justice as the answer to the problems of racial and religious discrimination in the United States, Julian I. Reiss, of the New York State Commission Against Discrimination, declared at a meeting of the Bishop Monaghan General Assembly of Fourth Degree Knights of Columbus here.

Mr. Reiss, telling of his personal experiences and studies since he was appointed to the board which administers the New York State anti-discrimination law of 1945, expressed his conviction that discriminatory practices in employment have supplied vital support for the advance of communism in America.

Mt. Cassino Librarian Visits U. S. College

St. Paul, Minn. — (NC) — The Rev. Dom Inguarez, O. S. B., librarian of the famed Benedictine Monastery at Monte Cassino, Italy, credited with having much of the priceless library, before the monastery was bombed during the war, was a visitor at St. Thomas' College here.

Just before the seizure of the monastery by the Nazis, Father Inguarez said he succeeded in smuggling out more than 2,000 of the most valuable manuscripts, some being originals of the works of Keats and Shelley when the Nazis seized the monastery, they confiscated 30,000 books and manuscripts, but the intervention of His Holiness Pope Pius XII kept them from being sent to Berlin. Father Inguarez said.

Catholic Daughters Hold Christmas Tea

Cornwall — Members of Court St. Joseph, Catholic Daughters of America enjoyed a Christmas tea Monday evening following the regular business meeting. Gifts were exchanged which in part were gathered for donations to the Social Service Society.

Features of the entertainment were solos by Nan Reilly, who was accompanied by Mrs. Joseph Clancy, readings by Mrs. Kelsey Careton and vocal duets by Marilyn and Betty Wagner. Miss Joyce Platt accompanied the Wagner sisters.

Famous Christmas Poem's Origin

Clement C. Moore, author of the poem, "Twas the Night Before Christmas," which adds so much to the romance and delight of Christmas for millions of children, was a university professor, College president and author of a Hebrew dictionary.

The poem was written at Christmas time in 1822 for his two daughters. It was never intended for publication. The author, indeed, was annoyed and embarrassed when he learned that a friend of the family had copied it and sent it to the Troy Sentinel. Professor Moore's Hebrew dictionary may be forgotten, but not his poem.
