Strike in Erin

Dublin -- (RNS) - Settlement of the strike in Ireland's four sugar beet factories is in sight as a result of the intervention of Father John Hayes, pastor of the little village of Bansha.

County Tipperary, where one of the factories is located.

After turning down many ap-peals to return to work, strikers anked Father Hayes to act as meditator. He arranged a conference with delegates of four factories, and the latter agreed to urge workers to return to

In an appeal to workers to put aside their own interests for the sake of the nation, Father Hayes told them that "starving Europe lies before us and with the help of God you will make this sacrifice to prevent a similar
