Martinez Sierra Christmas Drama Staged at Mercy High

"Holy Night," by Martinez Sierra was presented in Our Lady of Mercy High School Auditorium Wednesday evening as the students' gift to parents and friends.

Anne Lennon, a senior, headed the cast as the Blessed Mother and a sophomore, Barbara Hastner, shared leading honors as Bautista, a beggar boy.

The play opened with the conclusion of Midnight Mass at a Cathedral in Spain. A group of red cassocked carolers sang Adeste Fidelis. A street in the slums of Madrid offered the surroundings for the scenes following. In the Nativity Tableau, the last scene, Marjwyn Beiter and Rosemary Walsh sang.

Madelena, a girl of the streets, was portrayed by Betty Doran, while Nicasia, a girl of the slums was Anne Tierney. Mary Ann DiNieri played the dramatic role of Ubalde a poverty stricken woman. Patricia Driscoll '47 was cast as a wealthy little girl, while Mary Ann Hanna, '47 was her mother. Joan Moore gave life to the role of Saint Joseph.

Aquinas boys leading the cast were Roger Schifferli, as Saint Francis and Joe Qualey as "the mad priest." Others taking part were Fritz Hafner, Bob Hafner, Jack Curran, Bob Skerrett, Jim Farrell and Ray Booth.

Heavenly angels were Colleen O'Connor, Rosemary Walsh, Virginia and Ruth Murphy.

Members of the choral classes sang from the balcony and formed the candle light procession to the crib in the final scene. The audience sang carols between the scenes.

60 Years A Priest

Albany—(NC)—Completion of 60 years in the priesthood was noted here today in a Mass of thanksgiving at St. Joseph's Church by Msgr. Michael J. Looney, pastor.
