16 Converts Make First Communion

Sixteen men, women and children who have faithfully attended instruction classes these times, will receive their first Holy Communion in St. Peter and Paul's Church, Elmira, Sunday, according to the church parish publication.

This is the latest group of converts received in the classes conducted at St. Peter and Paul's Church under the direction of the pastor, the Rev. William J. Houghton.

Communion of the newly received Catholics First Holy Communion, the church states editorially: "We pray that they may remain steadfast in the Faith, and we urge each to show his appreciation to God by bringing a candidate to a future series of classes."

Hospital Addition Started New York — (NC) — Operations have started on construction of a new hospital, to be an addition to St. Charles' General Hospital, undertaken at an estimated cost of $1,000,000. It is expected that the addition will be completed within a year.

Waverly Sodality Mourns Death of Paul McMillen

Waverly—A resolution of sympathy is being sent to the family of the late Paul McMillen who was a leader in the Sodality of Our Lady of Perpetual Help of St. James' parish as the result of a motion passed at the regular monthly sodality meeting.

The motion was made by Thomas Watta, chairman of the Eucharistic and Our Lady's Committee, and passed by the assembled Sodality.

The resolution is as follows: "In the regular monthly meeting for December, the Sodality of Our Lady of Perpetual Help of Saint James' Parish heard a motion that a resolution of sympathy be sent to the family of the late Paul McMillen. The motion was made by Thomas Watta, Chairman of the Eucharistic and Our Lady's Committee, and was passed by the assembled Sodality. The resolution is as follows:

Whereas, The late John Paul McMillen during his stay in Waverly showed himself to be an exemplary Catholic leader and companion; and

Whereas, Almighty God in His infinite wisdom has fit to call him to Himself; and

Whereas, The members of the Sodality of Our Lady of Perpetual Help of Saint James' Parish feel keenly the loss of the Catholic principles shown in his leadership; therefore,

Resolved, That this expression of sympathy be entered upon the minutes of the meeting of this Sodality.

Resolved, That a copy of this resolution be forwarded to the family of the deceased.

Resolved, That a High Mass of Requiem be offered in Saint James Church for the repose of the soul of the deceased.

December 9, 1946
Robert L. Creighton, Prefect.
Mary T. Hogan, Secretary.
Margaret Cahill, Chairman of the Catholic Truth and Apostolic Committee, made a motion that money be raised for Christmas Charity. The motion was carried and immediately put into operation. The proceeds of this undertaking will be used to help the needy in Waverly, regardless of race, creed, or color.

With rehearsals well under way, the Senior Class plans to present, early in February "What a Lite," a Henry Aldrich, three act comedy. Edward Rose, senior class president, playing the lead as Henry, unravels his hilarious prank, while Eugene Agan, as Mr. Bradley, school principal, does his part to make life miserable for Henry.

Teat Book Planned

Eugene Agan, editor-in-chief of the "Echoonian," reports that the 1947 edition will be a top number. The ambitious seniors are bringing in ads each day and are also busy soliciting patrons to help make the book a real success. Pictures for the book were taken in the school on last Thursday. The photographer will again visit the school early in January.

Freshman Class Exhibit

During the week of December 21 the Freshman class has a hobby exhibit in the library. Among the many interesting articles were collections of knives and swords, matchbooks, foreign coins, old pennies, baseballs, and posters. The collectors were Eds Boyle, Ralph Reed, Regina Bush, John Nolan, Joseph Regan, Raymond Wintreik, Jack Tins, Paul Prunier, William Mosler, John Geary, John Murphy and Richard Hardman.
