

DeSales Five Notches Fifth Court Victory

Geneva.—A hard-driving DeSales High School quintet topped another powerful adversary Friday night and it took its fourth consecutive victory 50-25 with St. Mary's of Cortland on the short end.

The Geneva team took off a head of its opponent and retained the lead until the final whistle, scoring an easy victory.

Scoring honors for the Salesians went to Bucklin, who scored 18 points. Lynch with 14, Nagle and Sweeney with 8 and 7 respectively.

Woods of St. Mary's led the Cortland team with a total of 18 points.

The DeSales eagles scored an upset and their third win of the season by downing Cortland 50-25 on the Academy's court.

Field nearly even in the first half, the Salesians cut loose in a third period 12-point spree, which gave them a 25-18 lead. The game couldn't overcome DeSales' margin even though they outscored the Geneva five 9-7 in the final period.

This time it was Nagle splitting the meales with 8 points followed closely by Sweeney and Gill with 6 each. Bucklin and Lynch each collected 5 counters. Sweeney, only reserve used by DeSales, collected two on a field shot.

The Salesians second win also came easily as they took McIntosh 44-18 on the enemy's home court. Paul Nagle led the Geneva's attack.

Nagle netted eleven points and Sweeney and Lynch each took 10.

In a hotly-contested Jayvee preliminary, the De Sales juniors lost to Manchester 22-37.

Headed by Bill Sweeney, the Geneva boys racked up their first

Geneva High-Aquinas Cage Tilt Sought for Benefit

Geneva.—A tentative contest has been scheduled between Geneva High School's unbeaten basketball squad and Aquinas Institute of Rochester, two of the area's most powerful scholastic quintets.

The game, which would be the first contest between the two schools in 20 years, would be held Feb. 4 at state Armory.

The game would be played for the benefit of the March of Dimes campaign. Benefactor stated.

Harold "Doc" Bonesteel, Geneva High School athletic coach, said that he has been in communication with Aquinas officials and is awaiting final word on the contest.

Since, in the only engagement ever held between the two teams, the Rochester team trounced the local boys, Coach Jim Loman of the Milton Streeters will have his sharpshooters primed for a belated revenge.

JOHN TERRY'S 600 TOPS KEGLERS IN AUBURN LEAGUE

Auburn.—John Terry, who has been plying himself nicely all season has started to put on the pressure now that the last half of the St. Aloysius Holy Name Bowling League schedule has begun. Terry's 600 total Sunday in games of 207, 186 and 203 shows he is out to prove his right to the title of "the Ace Bowler" of the league.

Jack Friedel of Notre Dame joined his 573 to Terry's 600 to sink Canisius, who were able to win only one point on Lou Tonz's 321.

LCBA in New Home Office Buys Half Million in Bonds

This beautiful home in Erie, Pa. has become the Home Office of the Ladies Catholic Benevolent Association. Supreme Officers met there this month.

Purchase of $500,000 in United States Treasury 2 1/2 per cent bonds was authorized at a Board of Supreme Trustees meeting of the Ladies Catholic Benevolent Association held in the new Erie, Pa. home office. Mrs. Anna I. Ryan of Rochester, a supreme trustee, attended the meeting.

A reception to honor the Most Rev. Mark Gannon, Bishop of Erie, who accepted the position as Supreme Spiritual Adviser of the Association in July, was held by the supreme officers in the newly acquired Home Office, 305 West 6th St., Erie, Pa.

Bishop Gannon blessed the Office and was assisted by the Rev. Gerald Dugan, pastor of St. Andrew's Church, Erie, Pa.

Miss Bertha C. McEntee, Supreme President, extended a welcome and Mrs. Lillian Sullivan, President of the Erie Senate presented Bishop Gannon with a check for $1,000 from the L. C. B. A. members of the Erie Diocese to be used in installing a stained glass window in the new College Library which is now being built.

Bishop Gannon congratulated the Association on having secured a desirable building for its Home Office and thanked the members of the Erie Diocese for their contribution to the building fund. He referred to the "Kate Mahoney Memorial Fund" established in her memory to carry on the work for the deaf and expressed the hope that in every section there would be L. C. B. A. groups linked to "Ephpheta Ladies of the L. C. B. A."

A member of the juvenile group, Carol Gehlrich, extended greetings to Bishop Gannon and referred to the fact that his mother Mrs. Julia Gannon was one of the pioneer members, being admitted in March 1890, one month before the Association received its Charter.

In addition to the Board of Supreme Trustees, other Supreme Officers attending were: Supreme Recorder, Miss Margaret M. Carroll, Erie, Pa.; Supreme First Vice President, Miss Bertha Leavy, Pittsburgh, Pa.; Supreme Second Vice President, Miss Annette Voest, Syracuse, N. Y.; and Editor of the Fraternal Leader, Miss Rose Callahan, Baiton, N. Y.

Reports made by officers indicated that there has been increased interest in work for the deaf since July, when Bishop Gannon became Supreme Spiritual Adviser. The reception was attended by

BISHOP YU-PIN SAYS POLITICAL PARTY IS OUT

Nanking, China.—(RNS)—Reports that Chinese Catholics intend to organize a political party were denied here by Dr. Paul Yu-pin, Archbishop of Nanking, and a member of the presiding council of the National Assembly.

"The Church does not want to get too mixed up in politics," Archbishop Yu-pin declared. "However, it will not interfere with members wishing to join various political parties."

He warned that Communists in China are seeking to "set class against class," but said Catholics believe in close cooperation with other groups. "We love all men, even Communists," he declared.

Questioned regarding a report that Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek is "becoming interested" in Roman Catholics, Dr. Yu-pin commented: "All I can say is I hope so."

(The Generalissimo is a Methodist.)

Referring to the National Assembly, he said that while all important religions are represented among the 1,700 delegates, "none come in the name of religion."

Chapel to Honor Father Carberry

Notre Dame, Ind.—Rev. Richard E. Carberry, a graduate student at the University of Notre Dame in 1931 who died aboard a Japanese prison ship while serving as an Army Chaplain during World War II, will be honored by a memorial chapel at his home parish, Silverton, Oregon, the War Department announced this week.

The Father Carberry Memorial Chapel is one of sixteen similar service chapels allocated recently by the Army chief of chaplains. Four of the sixteen will go to Oregon organizations for memorials.

Father Carberry, whose death marked the first loss of a priest to the Archdiocese of Portland, Oregon, in either war, was a brother of three Notre Dame men. Glenn M. Carberry of New York City, a graduate of Notre Dame in 1923, John W. Carberry, '35, of Los Angeles, Calif., and Thomas P. Carberry of Ames, Iowa, who attended Notre Dame during the 1930-31 school year.

Glenn Carberry resided in Rochester several years ago and was associated with Charles E. Callahan, attorney. He also coached at St. Bonaventure College.

Only Catholic Paper in Greece Athens, Greece.—(NC)—An appeal for prayers for Archbishop Aloisius Stepien of Zagreb, Yugoslavia, British East Africa, was consecrated in the chapel of St. Joseph's College of the Christian Brothers here.

K. of C. Open Scholarships To All Catholic Children

Knights of Columbus college scholarships, formerly awarded only to relatives of Knights or members themselves, will be open next year to competition among all Catholic boys and girls in the state of New York.

The scholarship change is announced by Chairman John P. McArdule of the Scholarship Committee of the New York State Council, Knights of Columbus.

Before the policy change only sons and daughters, brothers and sisters of living and deceased Knights and the Knights themselves, were eligible for the eight scholarships awarded annually to Catholic colleges.

Deadline set March 22.

Five scholarships will be awarded, as previously, after competition by boys and girls will go to girls one each in the several districts into which the state is divided.

Applications must be filed with the Scholarship Committee of the New York State Council not later than March 22, 1947. The examinations will be held on Saturday, May 3, 1947 at centers to be announced throughout the state.

Each scholarship will entitle the holder to receive $200 a year for four years, to be applied in whole or in part to defray expenses for tuition, books and maintenance in any college in the United States conducted under Catholic auspices and whose scholastic standing is equivalent to the colleges empowered by the Regents of the University of the State of New York to confer degrees. Scholarships for girls are awarded only for Catholic colleges for girls and not for co-educational institutions. The acceptance of one of these scholarships does not preclude the holder from enjoying any other scholarship he or she may win. The award for each year will be conditional on the holder's making a satisfactory record during the preceding year.

The applicant must reside in New York State and be a practical Catholic. He or she must be a candidate for graduation in a recognized high school or its equivalent during the term ending in January or June, 1947. Applications should be filed as soon as possible prior to next March 22 with John P. McArdule, Chairman of the Scholarship Committee, 1620 Sixth Avenue, Brooklyn 9, New York. Letters seeking further information also should be sent to that address.

Application blanks may be had at the Council office of the area in which applicants reside. The signature of the applicant, that of his or her parent or guardian and that of the pastor or assigned pastor of the applicant must be given. The certification of some person in authority in the applicant's present school, that the applicant is a candidate for graduation, also is required.

All candidates for these scholarships must submit to a uniform examination in English (Literature and Composition), United States History (from 1783 to date) and Mathematics (Plane Geometry and Intermediate Algebra). The scope of the examination is that set by the New York State Regents examination board. It will cover the entire work of the course, although given on May 3-4.

ened the 13,700-ton cruiser when it was launched, said:

"I wish all the people of Rochester could be here to share the honor accorded me in attending the commissioning of this great ship. May the Rochester be a guardian of peace. May she sail with guns ready and God willing, through peaceful waters wherever she may go."

As her words echoed over the ship's public address system, the national ensign purchased with the pennies of Rochester parochial and public school children, whipped smartly in the breeze from high up on the mast of the new ship.

Following the ceremonies, Capt. Guthrie, former officer aboard the original Rochester, asked the Rochester delegation on hand for the impressive commissioning rites to "carry back my deepest thanks and those of the crew for the many gifts given us by the kind people of Rochester."

Among those attending the ceremony were Herbert Eisenhart, Carl J. Hallauer, Frank Smith, Mrs. Richard Eisenhart, William "Morris" Allen Doyle, Mr. and Mrs. H. Frey, Fred Odenbach, James C. Cypert, William H. Gannett and Frederick Boyer and Otto Rosenberger, who served aboard the old Rochester during the Spanish-American War.

Catholic Schools Benefit From Ulster Rise in Grants

Belmont, Northern Ireland.—(RNS)—Clauses in Ulster's new Education Bill which would increase maintenance grants to voluntary denominational schools from 50 to 65 per cent were approved by the House of Commons after a six-hour debate.

The clauses affect 600 Roman Catholic and 300 Protestant institutions.

Sharp opposition to the grant increase came from former Premier J. M. Andrews and six other members of the Unionist or government party. An amendment by Unionist member Mrs. McNeill, a former school teacher, to keep the grants at 50 per cent was defeated by 49 votes to 3.

Five Nationalist (Catholic) members and four Labor members abstained from voting.

Minister of Home Affairs Edmund Warner, E.C., said it was "the crowning glory" of the Ulster settlement that it had not yielded to the temptation to deal ungenerously with the Roman Catholic Church. He said "the treatment of minorities was always been a fundamental principle of that parliament."
