Maryknoll Nuns Open Mission in Chinatown

Boston — (RNS) — The Maryknoll Sisters, whose field of operations traditionally has been China, Japan, and the far corners of the globe, have turned their attention to the Oriental citizens of the United States in a center opened recently in the heart of Boston's Chinatown.

On Tyler Street, where Chinese children play, and Oriental merchants and restaurant-proprietors conduct their varied enterprises, the freshly painted doors of a convent, interrupt the succession of tenement houses and foreign-looking shops.

Inside the center, a group of Chinese-born children hear an American sister speak their native dialects fluently, and with Chinese symbols and English words, make the language of their new land comprehensible to them. Other Chinese youngsters, grouped about a victrola, listen raptly to the lilt of an American march — to some of them, the sound of the western rhythms still falling strangely on ears accustomed to the sing-song of Oriental music.

Many of the toys are new-arrivals in this country, the children of Chinese returning here after a number of years in the Orient. Their links are augmented by the offspring of Chinese-American GIs serving in the Far East. Many of the veterans have brought back wives and small children to this country.

Older Chinese are learning at the center both English and some of the history of their new country. For the children, the sisters conduct kindergarten and craft classes.

Sister Mary Theresa, superior at the Boston center, previously was stationed at Kowloon, China. Sister Lawrence, who teaches English classes, taught for many years in the interior of China and is expert in a number of Chinese dialects.

Pope Aids Jap Victims of Quake

Rome — (RNS) — Pope Pius XII has ordered the Apostolic Delegate to Japan, Msgr. Paul Marella, to distribute a large sum of money among victims of the earthquake and tidal wave disaster on the Wakayama Peninsula of Honshu Island.

At the same time, the Pontiff instructed Msgr. Marella to express his "sincerest condolences" to the Japanese government.

Pope Permits P.M. Prison Masses

Paris — (NC) — Permission to offer Mass in prisons and internment camps during the afternoon, whenever conditions and regulations make it impossible for inmates to attend Mass during the morning hours, was granted by His Holiness Pope Pius XII in a letter to His Eminence Emmanuel Celestine Cardinal Suhard, Archbishop of Paris.

Permission for the celebration of afternoon Mass was requested by the Cardinal-Archbishop in view of the considerable number of political prisoners now being detained, and the resulting difficulties in rendering proper spiritual assistance.

UN Peace Efforts Termed Failure by Bishop Buddy

San Diego, Cal. — (NC) — The lasting peace of the world cannot be realized "unless the United Nations shows a change of heart" and recognizes "the necessity of first admitting principles of truth," Bishop Charles F. Buddy of San Diego said in a radio broadcast in which he analyzed the reasons for what he termed the "colossal failure" of the peacemakers.

At the same time, the Bishop declared it to be a "depressing fact" that "we Americans have not been truly represented in these deliberations" and asserted that "the representations of this country have been weak and inadequate," in spite of "the untiring efforts of our Secretary of State."

"Our representatives at the peace table ignored the spirit of our fighting men who won the great victory," Bishop Buddy added, saying that, "instead of getting down to their solemn duty of promoting peace the United Nations have busied themselves in sowing the seeds of war."

Charging the General Assembly of the United Nations with having not only deserted justice but openly flaunting honesty and charity, the Bishop declared that "the so-called Spanish issue is a swindle," that "the charges against Franco and Spain are baseless," and that "the vicious interference in Spain is without justification."

"What discourages and disgusts thinking people is the fact that delegates outside the Soviet pale lack the courage to call lies fabricated to promote communistic aggression," he added, charging that this "supine and cowardly attitude in failing to oppose those endeavoring to Christianize the world and set up puppet regimes in many lands only intensifies the confusion."

Nations have failed to send "God-fearing statesmen" to represent them at the United Nations conference, the Bishop said. He added: "The United Nations Conference hesitates to enter a protest against religious persecution in Yugoslavia and, yet, blatantly and shamelessly they endeavor, under communistic pressure, to cause dissension in the world."

Statue of Franciscan

Antwerp — (NC) — In a special visit to the people of Ghent, Jose de Nunez y Dominguez, Mexico's ambassador to Belgium, told the people of that city that a Franciscan friar, born near the town, will have his statue erected in Mexico. He is Fray Pedro de Gante who lived in the 16th Century and is celebrated throughout Mexico for his widespread activities in preaching the faith.
