Blind Girl A Professor

Trenton — (UPI) — A blind girl with a "strong eye" was a prominent delegate at the annual meeting of the American Catholic Philosophical Association here.

She is Dr. Clementine Wren, a professor of philosophy at Xavier College for girls, Cincinnati, Ohio. Blind at the age of 18, Dr. Wren was not deterred from pursuing her educational ambitions. By means of readers and a profound memory she made her way through undergraduate and graduate courses, guided in her studies by Dr. Anton G. Fagot, professor of philosophy at the University of Trenton, past president of the Association.

Labor Leader Dies; Mt. Morris Native

Detroit — (UPI) — Funeral services were held at St. Mary of Redford Church here for Elmer E. Millman, international president of the A. F. of L. Brotherhood of Maintenance of Way Employees and adviser in the forming of the Detroit Archdiocesan Labor Institute.

Mr. Millman, 56, was a native of Mt. Morris, N. Y. He left college to go to work for the Delaware, Lackawanna & Western Railroad and was instrumental in organizing his fellow workers on a section gang. He served as secretary-treasurer of the Maintenance of Way Brotherhood from 1922 to 1940, when he was elected president.

The Rev. Raymond Clancy, director of the Detroit Archdiocesan Labor Institute, delivered the sermon at the Requiem Mass and described Mr. Millman's years of service to his fellow men. The priest declared that the most successful of all labor leaders are those who do not seek private gain.

Bishop Opens Lecture Series
Fort Wayne — (UPI) — Open to Catholics and non-Catholics, a series of four Catholic Information forums by Bishop John F. Noll of Fort Wayne, was opened here tonight in the Knights of Columbus Home. The Bishop will speak on the three succeeding Wednesdays. Each discourse will be followed by a question-and-answer period.

Noted Entomologist, Convert, Dies at 59

Philadelphia — (UPI) — Morgan Hebard, nationally-known natural scientist, a convert to Catholicism, has died here at the age of 59. He was the former curator of the Department of Entomology of the Academy of Natural Sciences of Philadelphia. Mr. Hebard was an Episcopalian by birth. He was received into the Church by a relative through marriage, the Rev. John LaFarge, S.J., editor of America.

Day Germans Take Cards

Frankfurt — (UPI) — The general ruling of the Inter-Allied Control Commission in Berlin which prohibits the playing of "picture cards" from abroad in Germany, has been interpreted in such a way that Germans can now take cards from abroad.

What harm such holiday greetings could do, especially since all mail from abroad in Germany is censored, remains a mystery. Certainly this restriction is not in line with the new policy opposing the "hate the Germans" slogan so widely applied since the war by all the occupational authorities.
