Corning Youth To Annapolis

Corning — Joseph Dalley, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward J. Dalley, 140 W. Water St., Painted Post, has been awarded an appointment to the United States Naval Academy at Annapolis by Congressman Sterling Cole.

An enrolled freshman at Sampson College, Mr. Dalley is a 1946 graduate of Painted Post High School where he played an important part in various school activities. He was named All-County basketball center for 1946 as well as named All-Sectional Center for Section V at the Rochester Tourney basketball playoffs.

Mr. Dalley also ranked first in the oratorical contest sponsored by the American Legion in his senior year. In Scouting he was an Eagle Scout and senior patrol leader.

Bowling

Rocco Natalio's 529 High In K. C. League. Resuming competition after a two week lay-off the Knights of Columbus bowlers rolled league games on Columbus Civic Center alleys, Jan. 8.

Captain Rocco Natalio's 529 total was not quite enough for his "LeFrois Pickles" to gain any ground on the leading Waldert Optical five Bob Harter's "Purr-Quill" club proved the stumbling block by taking two out of 3 games from last year's champs. Ed Morphy, mentor of the "Stitt Tile and Marble's" Jack Kinney and "Nell Collins Sandwich Bar" outfit into camp by winning two out of three games.

Frank Brennan's "Eastwood Shoe" took 3 straight from Schglard's Bootery. "Rooney's Pickles" under the leadership of Flash Van Slyke from Webster proved to be a stubborn foe for Gene Austin's leading Optical Club. In a bitter struggle the opticians narrowly won the odd game.

Seneca Falls K. of C. Outbowl Rochester

Knights of Columbus keglers representing Rochester Council journeyed to Seneca Falls, Sunday afternoon, Jan. 12, for the second half of the home and home bowling match. Games of 8-11, 8-8 and 8-8 were responsible for the Finger Lake aggregation emerging the winner with a margin of 384 pins.

Joe Romanek's 386 and Father Cuffney's 346 featured for the winners while Tony Camello's 337 and Jack Ward's 492 was Rochester's best effort.

Buffalo K. C. Keglers To Bowl Here Sunday

Second half of a home and home bowling match between representatives of Rochester and Buffalo Councils, Knights of Columbus, will be held at Columbus Civic Center alleys, Sunday, Jan. 19.

The Queen City Knights headed by Dick Herdlein come here with a 617 pin lead. Following the match a dinner will be served. Jack Kinney, House Committee chairman has engaged Charlie McMahon, "the Irish caterer from Bull's Head," Secretary William D. Slarb announces.
