Rocco Natalie's 529 High in K. C. League
Resuming competition after a two week lay-off the Knights of Columbus bowlers rolled league games on Columbus Civic Center alleys, Jan. 8.
Captain Rocco Natalie's 529 total was not quite enough for his "LeFrois Pickles" to gain any ground on the leading Waldert Optical five Bob Harner's "Purr-Quill" club proved the stumbling block by taking two out of 3 games from last year's champs. Ed Morphy, mentor of the "Statt Tile and Marbles" took Jack Kinney and "Nell Collins Sandwitch Bar" outfit into camp by winning two out of three games.
Frank Brennan's "Eastwood Shoe" took 3 straight from Schglard's Bootery.
"Rooney's Pickles" under the leadership of Flash Van Slyke from Webster proved to be a stubborn foe for Gene Austin's leading Optical Club. In a bitter struggle the opticians narrowly won the odd game.
In Jack Graham's circuit Ray Hasenauer and his "William E. Woerner Novelty Works" are leading the Knights' division closely followed by Jimmy Marcille's "Phileo Radio" and Tony Camello's Market.
