Night Club

An unique night club in Montgomery will be held by the Parish Women's Auxiliary and Church people under the National Adoration Society in order to raise funds for the night flight Saturday, Jan. 25, at St. Paul's Church, Plymouth Ave. North at Brown St.

The society ladies will be on hand to answer questions and serve refreshments.

There are no reservations, no waiting in line, no dressing for a "regular" taste, no cover charge, the Parish Weekly sister.

National Adoration is a devotion that should increase because of its democracy. There is no exclusiveness, no knowing of the unknown. The lovely and the grace, the teacher and the learner, the workers and the unemployed, the physician and the sick, the client and the judge, all bow in hu-rility and praise before the Lord who knows all and sees the loving heart of each.

This is a man's devotion here is King Arthur's round table for modern knight; here are magic and miracle that surprise any atomic secret. No national adoration attracts men of all nations and age. Membership is thoroughly cosmopolitan or restricted in its roots.

Rummage Sale Set By Danford Guild

A rummage sale, sponsored by the Margaret Danford Guild, will be conducted Friday and Satuday, Jan. 25 and 26, from 4 to 6 p.m. in addition to

Levi Music Store.

Mrs. Bert Baker is general chairman, assisted by Mrs. Earl Smith and Mrs. George Wile as co-chairmen. Other members of the committee are Mrs. Martin Hansen and Mrs. Walter Mayes.

The Margaret Danford Guild is an organization which sponsors benefits for the girls at St.

Joseph's Villa. Different activities are held during the year including Christmas party, summer picnic, gifts to the girls at graduation, and many others.

Mr. D. Covill is president, Mrs.

Charles Eagle handles publicity.
