Sports Arena Tilt Set For Aquinas, CBA Cagers

By DAN KEIFER ERHANN

Absorbing three consecutive setbacks in four days, Aquinas return to the Sports Arena Friday night in a battle with C. H. A. of Syracuse. Christian Brothers Academy, once conqueror of the Irish, will face the Irish once again in a struggle. As Greenbush and the Irish had two new straight wins against the Rochester five, Aquinas, however, is equally as determined to beat CBA. And that means the losing side. The Indians of Syracuse, 3-0, were as dominant this season and are rated one of the best teams in the Syracuse area. A good possibility game is scheduled for 7 p.m. Friday at 8:30. Both have an excellent standing.

Saturday, the Indians found dropped a 4-3 to Smithville. Preps as they followed in the second half. The Indians had been highly rated because Aquinas took the greenbush and Danbury and Union had won their first two games so far. The Indians were the only team able to score with any consistency as they tallied six runs and six points respectively.

Tuesday night, the Irish played in the dark and again, they got dropped a 4-3 to Smithville. The Indians' record was now one win and one loss after the two previous wins. The Indians were the only team to win two games in a row.
