...ria Relief Asked ...e by Trapp Family

...Family famous Trapp family Singers, who en... here last Sunday at the Auditorium ... sponsored by the Catholic Co-op Club, ... the desperately needy people of their homeland.

This dramatic appeal, solidly upon the receipt of a list of 3,000 names of families sent them by ... of American Army chaplains who ... have as many — ready ... the extermination.

Since one family could do little for 3,000, the Trapp Family went to the capital city of Vermont on Jan. 21, feast of St. Agnes, and founded "Trapp Family Austrian Relief, Inc."

The non-corporation not only allows them to collect funds from money throughout the country, but it enables each donor to deduct his donation from income tax.

Latest reports from Vienna, states Lisa Kirchner, tell of chaotic conditions in the railroad terminals, where thousands of refugees and displaced persons fleeing the Russian-dominated areas, together with the needy and ... in the public are stranded.

A relief worker, writes Mr. ... with clothes wrapped in newspapers, boys and girls piled in ... kept together with string and pieces of wire.

It is this plight which the ... hopes to overcome by ... their friends and ... Austrian people whose ... distance they cannot have.

"Trapp Family Austrian Relief, Inc." with headquarters in Stowe, Vermont, is asking for donations of flour, powdered milk, fats, sugar, cubes, and clothing. Checks may be mailed directly to Stowe.

The concert program last Sunday was enthusiastically received. The group rendered polyphonic liturgical pieces with the same ease and polish as the gay, light-hearted folk tunes and yodeling.

Rev. Donovan of Aquinas Institute, president of the Catholic Interracial Council, has expressed his gratitude for the co-operation of both student members and the Fathers of Catholic Youth, who especially assisted in selling the tickets at reception.
