...This time is unbelievable but the fact of the Auburn five not making the finals of the Section 3 ... Although Manager John (Doc) Herring is not planning the least attempt to stage another game in Auburn, it is known that the club has dropped down to its last dollar.

However the Wolverinites who have all played games under their belts would have been represented by Coverage under the auspices of the Courier Journal and playing before standing room crowds only.

Ogdensburg Loses to H.F., Polio Campaign Boosted

Auburn—Keeping its winning streak intact, Holy Family High School basketball team managed to down St. Mary's of Ogdensburg 38 to 31 while it kept in the March of Dimes campaign last week at West High School gymnasium.

As a score of $2225 was realized from a capacity crowd, Holy Family varsity not only notched another victory but the Junior Defense Committee Senior Juniors, 36 to 22.

The worthy cause, to assist financially in the fight against the ravages of polio, will be upped by the donation of the...

...high school sports and according to Holy Family High School may in future years strive for a bigger program along this line. Coach Al Crowley, head mentor of the basketball squad was deeply pleased and briefly said, "At this time I wish to extend thanks to the public and to all those who assisted in making this affair so successful. I expect we will again cooperate and in the future loan our facilities to the March of Dimes cause. Again I wish to say thank you to all of you."

As an opening ceremony Mayor Edward T. Boyle and City Manager George F. Train officiated as referee and umpire. Following this the regular referees took over the whistles. The game was as good a court contest as could be wanted. Both teams were evenly matched and so close was the battle right down to the final minute or two, the lead changed hands nine times and the score was knotted seven times.

The Purple and Gold took command and held a 17-14 edge at half time, losing the advantage in the third period when Coach Ken Tobey's lads moved ahead 26-24. It was during the fourth leg that Co-captain Jack Fitzpatrick starred. He captured the leather from the swarm of players under the Holy Family boards to drop in three double deckers to place the locals ahead 30-26.

Then Ogdensburg's leader, Captain Dan O'Brien and his running mate Seymour rallied...rated and put Ogdensburg back in the lead 31-30. The scrap became red hot and the struggle surged up and down court, Holy Family's courtsters made their bid and the field goal that really iced the ball game came when Fitzpatrick fired a push shot at the hoop and it registered. Johnnie Mohan dropped in a two pointer to which Fitzpatrick added another double decker and a singleton and Mohan finished off the evening with a foul conversion to give Holy Family its 38 to 31 victory.

Captain Mohan now has registered 190 points for the season and his total is 668. Fitzpatrick has 168 points and a total of 380, so between the co-captains their tally now stands at 1,015 points.

High man for last night's game was O'Brien of the invaders with 16 markers. Mohan made 14 to lead the locals.

Next Friday at West High Holy Family is slated to meet the Amsterdam St. Mary's.

DeSALES HIGH '5' WINS BY 41-38 OVER ST. MARY'S

Geneva — De Sales High five nosed out St. Mary's Academy of Ogdensburg, 41-38, in a thrill-packed finish on the basketball ... here Saturday night. The Ogdensburg quint had a clean slate until they met Auburn's Holy Family High quint Friday and lost 38-31.

Bill Sweeney was high man for the De Sales with 18 counters, Paul Nagle chipped in with 10. Don O'Brien and Dan Termano had ten each for the losers.

Dave Seymour, Termano and Patty Millis started the visitors off to an early five-point margin while Bill Gilbert put in a free throw for De Sales. Finally rallying the entire team rallied to give McNierneyites a 12-8 quarter advantage.

George Bucklin and Nagle increased the High Strikers margin to open the second period. O'Brien scored for the losers on a nice pass from Jack Bawes but Bernie Lynch's set shot cancelled this. The quarter ended with Seymour and Termano scoring to set the totals at 19-12 in favor of De Sales.

Again starting quickly, Sweeney and Nagle scored for De Sales while Termano swished a set for St. Mary's. Joe Knight dunked in a charity toss for the Blue and Gold to make it 29-21 at the fourth's end. De Sales leading.

In the thrilling last frame Seymour and O'Brien started things off for St. Mary's with a pair of two pointers while Nagle tallied on a nice pass from Sweeney for De Sales. The visitors again came back with Bawes set shot and Millis's layup before Bucklin stuck in a hook for the locals. After trailing since the first period the Purple forged ahead on shots by O'Brien, Bawes and Seymour but Sweeney's overhead shot again gave the lead to De Sales. O'Brien put in a layup for St. Mary's but it again was Sweeney who, this time made two foul throws to put De Sales in front. Nagle's layup and Sweeney's two-pointer gave the homesters all the assurance they needed as O'Brien ended the fray with another layup.

In the preliminary the De Sales Jayvees took their second verdict of the campaign licking the Cellies 21-7. Gabe Bruni led the attack with 12 points.

Brings Movies of Arctic Missions

An Oblate Father of Mary Immaculate, the Rev. William A. Leising, O.M.I., brought a vivid description of Arctic missionary endeavor to members of the Catholic Students Mission Crusade at their Inter-High conference in Auburn. Here Father Leising shows one of his films to Gene Myler, Auburn delegate; Miss Rixler, treasurer of the Inter High Conference and Bob Pfaff, president, prior to the lecture.

Arctic Mission Needs Demonstrated In Films Shown CSMC by Missionary

By PATRICIA DRISCOLL

An interesting movie and lecture on Arctic life was presented for members of the Catholic Student Mission Crusade by the Rev. William A. Leising, O.M.I., last Thursday at Aquinas Institute.

"I wish I could start over again and do more," Father Leising declared, describing his mission among the Indians and Eskimos in the Mackenzie district of the Canadian Central Arctic.

The Arctic missionary, who is stationed some 200 miles below the North Pole, has built five missions and a hospital in the frozen wilderness.

Master of four languages besides Latin and English, he is holder of a degree in dentistry and has 90 flying hours to his credit.

In addition to producing the first technicolor movie on life in the Arctic, he has written a book.

Worker Six Years

The Oblate Father worked for six years on his movie despite freezing lens and freezing fingers. For every two seconds of film showing, he put in sixty hours of work, he told the Rochester group.

Purpose of the movie, according to the producer, is to impress upon the people of the United States the great need for sisters and priests in the Arctic.

Eskimos, though interested in the religion missioners have brought them, are hard to convert, the priest said. Only 30 per cent of their two thousand population have been converted and it takes approximately five years to accomplish the task of bringing one into the Church.

The Indians, on the other hand, receive Catholicity wholeheartedly, some 98 per cent of their four thousand population being Catholic.

The priest was injured while building a church in the Mackenzie country, losing his right index finger and seriously injured the third one. He has a dispensation to say Mass.

Urges Latin Catholics To Know Eastern Rites

Catholics of the Latin rite can do much toward helping in bringing dissident Eastern Christians back into the fold of Peter by learning more about Catholics of the Eastern rites.

This belief was expressed by the Rev. Clement C. Englert, C. SS.R., Rochester native, in a lecture on the Byzantine-Slavonic rites, sponsored by St. Josaphat's Holy Name Society at St. Josaphat's auditorium, last week before an audience of Latin rite clergy and laity.

Vesper services in the church preceded the lecture. Celebrant of the Molebem to the Sacred Heart was the Rev. Basil Turula, pastor of St. Josophat's Ukrainian Catholic Church and deacons were the Rev. Constantine Bendar, assistant pastor of St. John the Baptist Ukrainian Catholic Church, Syracuse and the Rev. Joseph L. Shaloka, assistant pastor of St. Josaphat's.

Responses were sung by the combined junior and senior groups of the Children of Mary Sodality under the direction of the Sisters Servants of Mary Immaculate.

Unity is Church's Aim

Father Englert in explaining "The What and Wherefore of the Eastern Rites," and citing the difference between the many rites of the church said that "what the Church desires is unity and not uniformity."

The lecturer quoted Pope Leo XIII's statement: "The Catholic Church does not possess one rite only, but embraces all the ancient rites of Christendom; Her unity consists not in the mechanical uniformity of all Her parts; but on the contrary, in a variety which is vivified by one principle, the Catholic Faith."

Eastern rites are faced with the task of bringing back to the Catholic Church some 150 million Eastern Christians who were separated from the Pope's authority during the destructive schism of the East in 1054. Father Englert believes that Latin rite Catholics can help their brethern of the Eastern rites in this task by becoming better acquainted with rites such as the Byzantine-Slavonic in use at St. Josophat's Church.

Points Out Differences

The lecturer traced the origin of the Church's various rites, and noted differences in customs.

In making the Sign of the Cross, "in the Latin rite, we touch the middle fingers of the right hand to the forehead, breast, left and right shoulders. The Byzantine Catholics," he said, "join the thumb, index and middle fingers at the lips and touch the forehead breast and shoulders with these three fingers while the other two, the ring and little fingers, are kept joined against the palm of the hand.

"The three fingers that are joined and touch the forehead, breast and shoulders commemorate the Blessed Trinity, three Persons in one God. The other two fingers that are joined against the palm of the hand symbolize the two natures in Christ united in His One Divine Person."

A second difference noted was the profound bow instead of the genuflection. The Ukrainians, he said, "not only make a very deep bow, accompanied by the Sign of the Cross, but also add a beautiful gesture by extending the right hand out slightly with the palm up."

In regard to Holy Communion Father Englert explained that the Byzantine priest does not use a thin round piece of unfermented bread for the Host as does the Latin priest, but instead a square piece of fermented bread; and Holy Communion is distributed with a long-handled golden spoon from the chalice, the communicant receiving Our Lord under both species, bread and wine.

A question period followed the lecture with many points brought up being explained by the Redemptorist Father.

VILLANOVA 2630 TOPS BOWLERS IN HOLY NAME LOOP

Auburn — St. Aloysius' Holy Name Bowling League got off to a good start in their final round. Villanova was the outstanding team rolling 2630, led by their lead-off man Carmen Oktaviano with 582. Carmen showed the form that he really is capable of. Vernon Pinkney with 536 and Paul J. Grahey with 508 helped the victors to overcome a strong Notre Dame team. Captain Jack Friedel of the losers came out of a slump with a bang — rolling 556. He inspired two other members of his team to roll in the 500s, Bob Holmes hitting 541 and John Terry rolling 536; yet the fighting Irish could not beat Villanova, the giant-killers.

Georgetown continued to pull away from the rest of the league by beating Holy Cross. Georgetown had four men in the 500 bracket, John Miskell with 547, Buddy Wilson with 533, Tom Hunt with 509 and Captain Joe Strapach with 501. Bill Sullivan of the Crusaders was the only one of his team who could crack 500. He did this by rolling 514.

Gonzaga got back their atomic bowling and blasted Santa Clara. Captain Paul Friedel led his team with 579 to be second for the day. He received great help from Jim Kennedy who certainly had his ball working to total 555. John Donnelly led Santa Clara with 529 followed by Captain Bill Dunn's 526.

Lowly Loyola pulled the surprise of the day by beating Canisius even with Lou Tonzi rolling the high of the day, 596, on games of 177, 197 and 222. It had become an adage that if Tonzi rolled 186 or better, Canisius could not lose, but Loyola had no regard for tradition. Tony Alvaro led the victors with 536 and received help from Captain Bill Bishop.
