SCOUT SERVES AT ALTAR

For the first time in the history of the Ad Altum Dei Altar, a Scout served as altar boy at the Mass celebrated by the Rev. William Swannom, S.J., at the Blessed Sacrament Parish, Monday, Feb. 22. The altar boy was Scoutmaster James J. Taylor.

Each program will include a catechism. The February 22 session will include dancing.

1000 at Pro-Cathedral Rites Honoring Scouts

By JAMES V. TAYLOR

Emphasis on the value to the growing boy of the Boy Scout program was stressed in church service observance of Scout Week highlighted in Rochester with the Benediction service at the Sacred Heart Pro-Cathedral.

As 1,000 Catholic Boy Scouts in uniform, their parents and friends looking on, His Excellency, Bishop Kearney awarded the Ad Altum Dei Merit to 33 Boy Scouts. The award was in recognition of their 300 hours of

REV. WILLIAM SWANNOM

DOCTRINE CLASS TO OPEN SUNDAY

Rev. William Swannom of Nazareth College faculty will conduct the second of the Catholic Doctrine Discussion series Sunday, Feb. 16 from 2 to 4:30 p. m. in Columbus Civic Centre.

Father Swannom has been prompted to continue the project by the encouraging response to the initial venture.

All persons not acquainted with the Catholic religion and interested in learning more of the doctrine, as well as non-Catholic wives, husbands or relatives are invited to attend this informal discussion group.

Attendance at the meeting, it is pointed out, involves no obligation of any sort.

Printed Matter May Be Sent to Germany

Noncommercial printed matter up to a weight limit of 4 pounds 6 ounces, when sent as gifts, may be accepted for mailing to the United States Zone of Germany, excluding Berlin. Postmaster Donald A. Dalley announces this week.

The term "noncommercial printed matter" is interpreted as referring to newspapers, news and fashion magazines, books on any subject, sheet music, and periodicals devoted to special fields of interest such as art, medicine, literature and similar subjects. Individuals in the United States may direct publishers to mail gift printed matter. It is not permissible, however, to send mail-order catalogs, or other printed matter of commercial nature, the Postmaster states.

The wrappers of printed matter addressed to the American Zone of Germany, excluding Berlin, must be plainly marked "noncommercial printed matter," and a list of the articles enclosed must be plainly endorsed on wrapper.

ELECTION SET BY VEREIN UNIT

Members of Rochester Branch, Catholic Central Verein will hold their annual meeting and "Get-together Party" at the Knights of St. John rooms, St. Joseph's Church on Sunday, Feb. 16 beginning at 7:30 p. m.

Election of officers and installation will take place.

An invitation is extended to all members of Rochester Branch, National Catholic Women's Union to attend the meeting. Lunch will be served.

EVIDENCE FORUM SET FOR NURSES

A Catholic Evidence Forum will be conducted by the Rochester Council of Catholic Nurses every Friday evening during Lent, beginning Friday, Feb. 18, at St. Mary's Hospital.

Following the Stations of the Cross at 7:30 p. m., the forums will begin at 8 and conclude promptly at 9 o'clock.

This Lenten project is intended to bring Catholic matters of interest to the attention of Catholic nurses and to assist them in the discharge of their professional duties. Each forum will be under direction of a nurse-chairman, the nurses themselves carrying on the discussion.

All Catholic nurses are invited to participate in this important Council project. Non-Catholic nurses are also invited to attend the forums. Further information may be had from the Rev. Charles Connell, St. Mary's Hospital chaplain, through Genesee 1.

Legion Post Slates Dance in K. C. Rooms
