Rites for Mt. Carmel CWV Post Attract 1000

Our Lady of Mt. Carmel auditorium bulged with a throng of 3,000 persons gathered despite the blustering weather Sunday evening to witness formal presentation of the Catholic War Veterans Charter to Memorial Post 1000.

Some 200 veterans took part in the impressive rites marking the charter presentation and dedication of the Post Colors to the memory of those Mt. Carmel men who gave their lives in World War II.

Rev. Francis J. Pegnam, far west chaplain of the USN, who officiated before the ceremony, was the principal speaker, declared that democracy is not safe because of a victory of arms.

One of the 2nd features of World War II, Father Pegnam averred, was the fact that the fighting men did not know what they were fighting for.

Defeat of democracy depends even more on the victory of the individual and the nation as a whole in the realm of Christian character and morality, he emphasized.

Chaplain spoke.

Rev. Edward A. Shamon, chaplain of Our Lady of Mt. Carmel Post, exhorted the veterans to be fired by a passionate love for every white strip of our flag which symbolizes the purity of principles upon which this nation was founded; every red strip which symbolizes the blood that was shed that this nation might be born and the blood so recently shed that this nation might not perish.

He pointed out that the stars set in the field of blue should remind men of the beautiful Mother of God, the Patroness of Our Nation.

The eagle atop the flagstaff, he said, which is not content with flying low but ever upward into the very sun, he stated, symbolizes that for America's greatness, "We too must look beyond the earth, not downward, but upward, beyond the clouds, up beyond the battlefields of the world, for America's greatness rests in God."

Father Shamon expressed gratitude to his pastor, the Rev. Charles J. Azzi, for his zealous cooperation in making his part as chaplain of the new post a pleasure.

Referring to the recent attack on the Holy Father by the "wave of anticlericalism," he urged the veterans to base their opinion on the fact that on June 10, 1940, the Pope, Pius XII, was elected, and that the Pope is the head of the Catholic Church.

Post Commander Mario Mazzoli introduced the guests, then Father Azzi, Father Pegnam, Father Shamon, Rev. W. Dorey, Monsignor, County Chaplain of the Catholic War Veterans; Rev. Patrick O'Malley, Chaplain of Holy Apostles C.W.V.; Rev. Joseph O. Gorman, Chaplain of Mt. Carmel's Men's Club; Rev. Joseph Natale, assistant pastor of Mt. Carmel; Charles D. Kelly, first Vice Commander, New York State Dept. C. W. V.; Nicholas Linnehan, Trustee, New York State Department; Dorey, County Commander, Monroe County Department, C. W. V.

Honored guests were conducted into the auditorium by the Knights of St. John led by Commander Joseph Volpe.

After advancing of the colors, opening prayer and the national anthem, Vice Commander Kelly formally presented the Post Charter to Commander Mazzoli.

Father Azzi extended a greeting to the veterans and congratulated them upon the establishment and present success of the largest C. W. V. Post in Monroe County. He reminded them that very few of Mt. Carmel's 1400 servicemen were asked to make the supreme sacrifice.

'Woerner' 5 Paces K. of C. League

"Woerner and Son" pulled farther out in front in the Knights Division of the Knights of Columbus Bowling League, as they defeated Jim Marcello's "Beaucaire" five three games. A Woerner was high man for Woerner with 183, while Bob Ward pulled the pins for a 328 total to be high man for "Beaucaire."

"Mahon and Schroeder," led by Alde Hannon, continued to move ahead as they took over undisputed possession of 3rd place and knocked off "Gerhard Optical" for two games. Hannon was high for Mahon's with 457 while Dr. Masello lead the losers.

"Owen Gas" moved out of last place with two wins over the strong "Camello Brothers." Graham was the heavy hitter for Owen while brother Frank lead the Camello clan. Camello's, however, move into second place due to Beaucaire's dropping three games. Lou lead "Richards" to two victories over "Wards Hardware" while Smith was the big gun for "Wards Hardware."

The standing at present are Woerner's in 1st, Camello's in 2nd, Beaucaire's in 3rd, Mahon and Schroeder in 4th, followed by Gerhard Owens and Wards. "Prexy" Jack Ward reported that the Wildcat Optical's led by the stellar performer, Ceno Ausling and Tom Wandeke and are way out in front in the Columbus Division.

Rocco Natale's "LeFrois Poles" are barely holding on to second place being pressed by Ed Murphy's "Stunt's Title and Motor" outfit who are in third position. "Earwood Shoes," "Pure Quill Gas" and "Neil Collins Sandwich Bar" are fighting for a spot in the first division, while "Rooney's Horseradish" and "Schalland's Bootery" bring up the rear.
