Funeral of Sister M. Tecla Hallahan who died Saturday, was conducted Tuesday morning (February 11, 1947) at 9:30 at Nazareth Convent Chapel in Pittsford.

Sister is also recalled with esteem by former pupils of St. Mary's, Canandaigua, St. Bridget's, St. John's, Geneva, St. Mary's, Dansville, St. Mary's, Auburn, and St. Francis Xavier where she taught for twenty-five years.

Eichman, and Rev. George Kalb. Blessing at the grave was given by Father Gifali.

Sister M. Tecla was the oldest member of the Congregation of the Sisters of St. Joseph. Born in 1857, she was in her 90th year and 72nd of her religious life. Sister was baptized in St. Joseph's Church, made her First Holy Communion there, and under the wise counsel of Rev. Father Pingel, C.S.S.R., whose spiritual advice she cherished through the years, she entered the Order of the Sisters of St. Joseph in 1875. She was the daughter of Joseph and Margaret Reichert who were among the early settlers of Rochester and who were well-known early parishioners of St. Joseph's Church. One brother became a Brother of Mary, two cousins became Redemptorists.

Sister Tecla is still remembered by her sister, Mrs. Mary Heinlein of Rochester; a nephew, several nieces, including Sister Tecla Marie and Sister M. Florian, and a grandniece, Sister M. Florence. The nuns all are members of the St. Joseph Order.

SCOUT SERVES AT ALTAR

1000 at Pro-Cathedral Rites Honoring Scouts

By JAMES V. TAYLOR

Emphasis on the value to the growing boy of the Boy Scout program was stressed in church service observance of Scout Week highlighted in Rochester with the Benediction service at the Sacred Heart Pro-Cathedral.

As 1,000 Catholic Boy Scouts in uniform, their parents and friends looking on, His Excellency, Bishop Kearney awarded the Ad Altero Dei Merit to 82 Boy Scouts. The award was in recognition of their 200 hours of service to their respective pastors as altar boys.

The Bishop quoted from a recent address by His Holiness, Pope Pius XII to the Boy scouts in which the Supreme Pontiff said:

"Your movement has for its motto 'Be Prepared'; that means be prepared to do your duty always. We would give those words a meaning even wider and more profound; be prepared above all for the moment, known only to God, in which the Lord will call you to render an accounting of the talents entrusted to you, both the supernatural graces and gifts, and the natural gifts of soul and body which He has lavished upon you for you to use them for the glory of God and for your own good and the good of your fellowmen."

Bishop Kearney told the boys of the newly formed Laymen's Committee on Scouting. He expressed it as his desire that through the efforts of this committee working in conjunction with the Oletiana Council staff, that a complete program from cubbing through senior Scouting will be worked out in all parishes in the Rochester deanery.

Services included blessing of the troop flags, recitation of the Act of Consecration to the Blessed Virgin Mary followed by Benediction of the blessed Sacrament.
