

Ladies of Charity Committees Busy, Report by Miss FitzGerald Reveals

By MARGARET KENNEDY
Miss Mary E. FitzGerald reported to us this week on some of the meetings which she attended recently and her report shows that Ladies of Charity is really an active organization.

At a meeting on last Tuesday evening which was held by St. Elizabeth's Hospital, the attendance was not as good as usual because several members were unavoidably absent. Those who did attend were very helpful in their special reports.

After the business meeting of this committee proved that they also can do manual labor by sorting and packing several cartons of clothing, bedding and shoes. To quiet the minds of any who might have doubts about these articles reaching their proper destination, Miss FitzGerald said she has been assured by the New York office that these boxes will be sent directly to the Ladies of Charity in Poland.

During the past week a committee, headed by Mrs. Mary Cramer packed several cartons of clothing at the salvage bureau on North Main Street. It is hoped that these donations will continue to come in and this plea should be near to the heart of every Lady of Charity. By giving these much needed articles, you are making it easier for Ladies of Charity in Poland to carry on their work.

Members of the Recreation Committee and their guests organized a discussion club which will meet each week during the Lenten Season. The discussions will be built around questions which members would like to have answered and will be in regard to the Catholic Religion and the obligations of a Catholic woman of the world in 1937.

The discussions will be built around questions which members would like to have answered and will be in regard to the Catholic Religion and the obligations of a Catholic woman of the world in 1937.

Last Wednesday afternoon members of the Red Cross Committee met in St. John's hall and sewed on garments which were given to them by the local Red Cross Chapter. At this meeting it was decided that all members would make an effort to come for sewing every other Wednesday for two and one half hours. The next meeting will be held on Feb. 26.

On last Thursday evening members of the Committee of Our Lady of Good Counsel held a dinner meeting at the Knights of Columbus hall, honoring four prospective affiliates. The regular business meeting followed the dinner at which Miss FitzGerald and Mrs. McCormack were guests.

They experience and this can only be done by personal contact and not by the use of a postage stamp.

She reminded members of the Committee that the primary purpose is that members are to act as the Bishop's messengers and all other projects are secondary to this end. A member of this Committee, to be in good standing, must make her regular visits to the mothers of the babies whom she has under her care.

A special article for the best achievement in the number of visits, goes to Mrs. John O'Leary, who is making visits once every three months to the mothers of 72 babies. Arrangements for this dinner meeting were in charge of the Social Chairman, Mrs. John J. Murphy and she was assisted by Mrs. Edward Franklin, Mrs. John J. Sullivan and Mrs. J. Keefe.

On Friday the attendance at the next party which the Social Committee held in St. John's Hall, was a little disappointing. This would have been an opportunity for the members of other committees to prove that they are interested in every

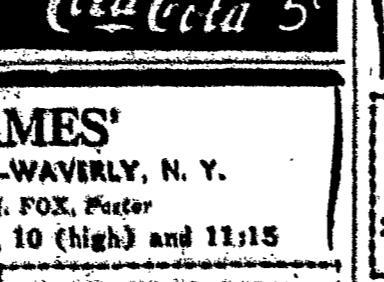

The program was opened with the presentation of a Western Melodrama, "Gold in Them There Mountains," in which Mrs. Anna McMahon, Dr. Fred Gorman, Albert Lynch, Arthur Brown and Walter L. Poland took part. Other features were vocal solos by Miss Mary Alice Dalley of Painted Post, accompanied by Miss Jean Halpin, also of Painted Post; solos by Mrs. Valentine Koziatek, accompanied by Miss Joyce Flatta, who also played a piano solo; a skit and song by Perry Bradley; Polish folk dancing in costume by the Misses Cecelia Wagner and Mary McElroy; a musical quiz with Robert Satterly at the piano.

Dancing and cards concluded the evening's entertainment and refreshments were served under the chairmanship of Mrs. Michael Gonia who was assisted by Mesdames Charles Niles Jr., Louis Hart, Carl Hyde, Joseph Cragan, Walter L. Poland, John Glinnane, Arthur Brown, John Koaty, Francis Reidy and Miss Mary O'Neill.

Other committees included the Misses Betty Fox, Mary McElroy, who assisted Mrs. Gillooni; Mesdames Mrs. Fred DeMuth, chairman, Mesdames Fred Gorman, Walter O'Brien and Mrs. J. T. Lantieri and the Misses Marjorie DeMuth and Mary Hart. Devotions were held in the Church prior to the entertainment.

Visiting Diplomats Dr. Yellow City (Radio, NCI)—Two visiting diplomats associated with countries very much in the news today, Archbishop Filippo Cortesi, former Papal Nuncio to Poland and Mgr. Carlo Colli, Papal Chargé D'affaires in Germany, have died within a few days of each other. Archbishop Cortesi died at Grottefrattia, Italy, at the age of 70, and Monsignor Colli died at Eichstaedt, Germany.

from a city and it was necessary to cover this distance by foot or by bicycle, he stated. The speaker also made an interesting comparison between school life in Holland and that in the United States. As an illustration he stated that it is necessary to study and obtain a satisfactory average in French, English, German, Latin and Greek in addition to the native Dutch language. He explained that no choice of subjects is permitted. In conclusion, Mr. Van Rhyn stated that due to wartime conditions religious fervor had increased in Holland. Material wealth, the Hollanders believe, has come to mean little or nothing to the average Dutchman. The ever present shadow of death, he said, has made the Hollanders ever ready to meet his Maker.
