H. N. PROTESTS TERROR BEHIND IRON CURTAIN

Calling on U. S. statesmen "to unite in a moral protest against the reign of terror now raging behind the Iron Curtain," a resolution was adopted by the Rochester Diocesan Holy Name Union and copies were sent to the State Department and to representatives in Congress.

Signers were John W. Mattle, Diocesan Union President and Lewis A. Schur, Deanery president.

The resolution states:

"We wish to register a vigorous protest against the despotic violation of human rights now being practiced in that area of Eastern Europe figuratively described as 'Behind the Iron Curtain.'

"As American citizens, devoted to respect for the dignity of human rights, we appeal in behalf of those victims of tyranny whose tragic fate is symbolized by the unjust imprisonment of Archbishop Aloysius Stepinac of Zagreb.

"In the face of such tyrannous violation of the American doctrine of Four Freedoms, we Americans must not remain silent nor rest until all men everywhere enjoy true liberty in fact as well as in theory.

"We respectfully call upon all political leaders in the United States to raise their voices clearly and continuously in behalf of those millions in Eastern Europe now trapped in the bondage of tyranny and weighed down with the fetters of despotism.

"We urge our statesmen, the heirs of Washington and Lincoln, to unite in a moral protest against the reign of terror now raging behind the Iron Curtain.

"If we Americans are sincerely dedicated to a World of Four Freedoms we must not turn our backs on the plight of those millions now crushed by ruthless oppression."

Jack Ward Bowls 573 in K. C. Loop

By WILLIAM D. STAUB

Ed Morphy and his hot "Statt Tile and Marble Five" continued their sensational winning streak to fifteen consecutive games in the Knights of Columbus Bowling League by administering a sound thrashing to the leading "Waldert Optical" five and cut their lead to two games. Games of 940, 913, 914 netted them 2803 for high three games of the season.

Jack Kinney and his band of youngsters representing "Neil Collins' Sandwich Bar" kept up their winning ways by extending their streak to nine straight by downing "Rooney's Horseradish" three games. Jack Ward's 573 and Captain Kinney's 524 were largely responsible for their 2749 three game total. Crowley hit 548 for the losers.

Cal Lofink rolling for the "Eastwood" five batted out a neat 501, but was not good enough. Hence, Bob Hand's "Pure Quill Five" took the odd game from the Bootery outfit.

Gus Nolan's "LeFrois Pickle Team" had it comparatively easy by downing "Scholand Shoes" three straight games.

"Double Century" scores were registered by: Jack Ward, 205, 201; Mike Eagan, 217; Gene Austing, 204; Jack Kinney, 200.

With three weeks to go we find "Waldert Optical" still leading in the Columbus Division by a slim margin of two games.

Statt's Tile and Marble is the runner-up while LeFrois Pickles is resting in third place three games behind the leaders.

Neil Collins' Sandwich Bar and Bob Hand's Pure Quill team are tied for fourth position, while Eastwood Shoes, Rooney's Horseradish, and Scholand Bootery teams take up the slack.
