K. C. 'Safeguards' Series Opens on WSAY This Friday

First of six patriotic broadcasts, "Safeguards for America," presented by the Supreme Council, Knights of Columbus and sponsored by Rochester Council will be heard at 9 p. m. Friday night, April 4 over station WSAY, Rochester.

Central theme of the series of dramatic sketches is the contrast between conditions of life under American democracy and the situation of labor, religion and personal liberty in the U. S. S. R. and in Soviet-controlled lands.

The first sketch is a vivid re-enactment of the arrival of Lenin in Moscow during the first World War, the early days of the revolution, the birth of the Soviet Union and its effect on the lives of Russia's patient millions.

Although presented in drama form, Grand Knight Francis T. Cooney states that every incident portrayed is authentic and key portions of the text are exact quotations from Lenin, Stalin and other Communist leaders.

The second program in the series will be an exposition of the conditions of labor under the Communist regime. Chancellor John M. Pietrascewicz of Rochester Council's Catholic Activities Committee made arrangements for the broadcast.

Waters, Thomas Reddington, John S. Randall, John S. Maloney, Daniel McCarthy, John D. Malley, Walter Fleming, Edward McAniff, John Treacy, Robert Meng, Lawrence Sansom, Joseph W. McNamara Joseph S. McCarthy, Joseph D. Donovan, Donald J. Mulcahy, Raymond J. Wahl, William S. Schifferli, Francis J. Taylor and Orin W. Feller.

Bearers were: Charles Steinkirchner, Morris Stiles, Lawrence Brassie, John Haggerty, John Walton and William Nolan.

A member of St. Augustine's Holy Name Society, Mr. Hayes was driving to work with his son, Brian F. Hayes, when taken with a heart attack. He was an employee of the Arpeako Corporation for the last 35 years.

Surviving besides his sons are his wife, Mrs. Ida Fitzgerald Hayes; and a sister, Mary C. Hayes of Washington, D.C.

Guild To Report On Membership

First report of the annual membership drive of the Mercy Guild of the Little Flower will be given at the regular meeting Tuesday afternoon, Apr. 8 at 2 p. m., at the Catholic Women's Club, Alexander St.

The drive will be climaxed by a luncheon at the Powers Hotel Monday, Apr. 28, at 12:30 p. m., when His Excellency, Bishop Kearney will be guest of honor.

Campaigners expect to raise the membership to 2000. Chairman is Mrs. Charles Baker.

Mrs. Joseph F. Ritz is chairman of luncheon arrangements and Mrs. Frank Dykell is in charge of flowers and decorations. Reservations for the luncheon may be telephoned to Mrs. Grace Bettin or Mrs. Charls Gosnell.

Chairman of hostesses at Tuesday's meeting is Mrs. Austin Heisel. Assisting will be Mesdames Paul Bailey, George Butts, Frank Dykell, William Gleichauf, John White and Edward Weigel.

Self-Serve Laundry

A unique type of laundry, the Lahser Launderette, where the customer will do her own washing, will be opened Monday, Apr. 7 at 432 Main St. E.

Operated by a former grocer, the Launderette is based upon the self-serve plan. The new store will accomodate women who do not have the proper laundering facilities. Automatic equipment and soap will be provided.

Visits to other points in the west coast inspired Mr. Lahser, he said, that he could bring the same laundry conveniences to Rochester and he applied for his franchise.

Retreat at St. Bona's

St. Bonaventure — A spiritual retreat, in keeping with the arrival of the Easter season, was concluded at St. Bonaventure College.

Conducted by Rev. Sebastian Egan, O. F. M., Rev. Celsus Wheeler, O. F. M., and Rev. Giles Webster, O. F. M., all students participated. The retreat is an annual event at the Franciscan Institute.

With its conclusion students departed for their homes for the Easter vacation. School will resume Monday, April 14.

Catholic Troops to Exhibit In Mammoth Scout-O-Rama

By JAMES V. TAYLOR

With schools closed next week, several thousand Boy Scouts and Cubs directed by their leaders will prepare exhibits for the gigantic Scout-O-Rama to be held Friday and Saturday, April 11 and 12 at Edgerton Park.

This largest demonstration of Scouting in action ever undertaken by Ontario Council, the Scout-O-Rama will provide nearly 100 booths, manned by cubs and scouts from the different packs and troops of the city.

St. Anne's troop No. 45 is preparing an exhibit showing the requirements and method of teaching marksmanship. Four scouts from this troop have qualified for this merit badge.

All have met the requirements also of Rochester Rifle Club Juniors, affiliated with the National Rifle Association.

Their exhibit will include sighting by triangulation, proper shooting stand and position. Safety rules and sportsmanship in shooting will be emphasized. An enclosed shooting range will permit visitors to try their aim.

Other booths will show an old fashioned blacksmith shop in operation; printing and bookbinding, metal crafts, wood carving, tent making and study of Indian lore. In one booth visitors may have their fingerprints taken for the files of the Federal Bureau of Investigation at Washington.

The Arena Show will take place at 4 p. m. and at 8:30 p. m. on both Friday and Saturday. Seven fast-moving demonstrations of from 5 to 15 minutes each will dramatize dubbing, scouting, senior scouting, sea scouting and pioneering in a one hour program which will show Scouting on Parade in a way never before presented.

Other Catholic troops and their activity will include Troop 13, Immaculate Conception, Bird Study; Troop 246, St. Monica's, Camping; Troop 101, Holy Rosary, Firemanship; Troop 212, Holy Family, Pathfinding; Troop 66, Sacred Heart Cathedral, Public Health; Troop 249, St. Charles, Wood Work; Troop 208, St. Boniface, Totems; Troop 110, Holy Trinity, Webster, Model Troop Camp.

N. D. Men To Hold Dinner

His Excellency, Bishop Kearney will join with Notre Dame men of Rochester in observing Universal Notre Dame Night on Monday, April 14 at dinner in Hotel Sheraton, President of the Notre Dame Club of Rochester Joseph Geraghty announces.

The Rev. Philip S. Moore, C. S. C., Dean of the Graduate School, University of Notre Dame will come for the dinner being held in conjunction with Notre Dame graduates throughout the world.

Aquinas president, the Rev. William J. Duggan, C.S.B., and Hon. Harold P. Burke, U. S. Federal District Court Judge are on the speaking program and Harry Wright, football, basketball and baseball coach at Aquinas will be toastmaster.

Reservations are being made by C. Donald Sconfietti, secretary of the Notre Dame Club of Rochester, 383 Oxford St., Rochester 7, N. Y.

Villa Unit To Meet

The Auxiliary of St. Joseph's Villa will hold a meeting Tuesday, Apr. 8, at 2 p. m., at St. Joseph's Hall, Franklin Street. Hostesses will be Mrs. Frank Gifford, Mrs. Frank Gores and Mrs. Mayme J. Grant.

A card party will also be held by the Auxiliary at Edwards auditorium, May 6. Mrs. Rose Bidlack is chairman and her co-chairman is Miss Anna B. Wintish.
