Released Time Ruling Sought

Boston, Pa. - FRSSD - ASKING now to submit a dispute over released time for religious instruction in local public schools to the Northampton County Court on statements of fact, for a decision on the constitutionality of that program has been reached. T. McKen Chidley, solicitor for the Boston School District, announced.

Mr. Chidley, who is Franklin County attorney general, said he and Joseph Devine, of Easton, council for opponents to the released time, agreed to go away with hearing of witnesses in the injunction proceedings initiated to restrain the Easton School Board from releasing pupils for religious instruction. Each side will present legal arguments and submit briefs, he said.

It is understood that an appeal will be taken to higher courts regardless of the decision by the Northampton County Court.

3,000 Socialists Expected At Diocesan Rally in May

Socialists and Catholics, United, will meet the first Saturday in May at St. Ambrose Catholic Church, Culver Street, Rochester, to observe the World Socialism Day.

Rev. Francis P. LaPergola, S.J., Regional Socialism Director, will be rally chairman.

Robert James K. Johnson, honorary chairman, made the original proposal. Other speakers will be the Rev. Daniel A. Lavelle, S.J., and Rev. J. Roger Lyons, S.J., National Socialism Director, from headquarters in St. Louis, Mo.

Rev. Roy H. Murphy has issued invitations to every Catholic parish and youth group in the diocese to send delegates to the gathering.

In stressing the significance of this meeting, His Excellency Bishop Kenney called attention to the promises of Our Lady of Fatima that through devotion to her Immaculate Heart civilization will
