Sodality Day Call Sounded

In a letter to priests of Rochester Diocese, His Excellency, Bishop Kearney sends the call for attendance at the World Sodality Day Rally for sodalists in Columbus Civic Center on May 18. The letter states:

My dear Father:

The diocesan celebration of World Sodality Day will be held on Sunday afternoon, the eighteenth of May. For the inspiration of our young people, and with the conviction that devotion to Our Lady is still, as Wordsworth says, a devotion which "infallibly assures its purity to youth, and to old age, the placid harbor of repentant love," we have organized a diocesan Youth Rally in honor of the Mother of Christ.

For this rally the national officers of the Sodality are coming to Rochester, and we shall give our young people the fruits of the years of experience which stand behind the words of these outstanding leaders of American Catholic Youth.

May I solicit your generous cooperation and that of your sodalists that this great rally to honor Our Lady, and to strengthen Her Ideals in the mind of our young people, may be worthy of Her and a tribute to Him who called Her Mother.

I am sure that your own sodality activities will receive renewed inspiration from participation in this Sodality Rally.

Your devoted Shepherd in Christ,

✠JAMES E. KEARNEY,
Bishop of Rochester.
