Com. 106 Knights List Activities

An interesting and ambitious program of fraternal and social activities has been planned by officers and members of Holy Rosary Commandery 106 of Holy Rosary Church. Events for April and May already scheduled include a series of Spring Parties, featuring round and square dances, and a mammoth May Card Party.

Carl Zimmer, chairman of the Spring Party series announces the first in a group of seven dances will be held in Holy Rosary Hall, Lexington Avenue Saturday evening, April 10. Music will be furnished by Randy Parsons' Orchestra with Randy calling the movements for the square sets. Refreshments will be available for the dancers. Future dances will be held on each Saturday evening during April and May including May 31.

The membership committee under the joint chairmanship of the Rev. Paul Wohlrab, Commandery Chaplain, President John T. Nothnagle and Charles Shippy have scheduled a class initiation to be held at the next Commandery meeting. A class of several new candidates will be inducted, and the meeting will be followed by a musical program of recordings.

Outstanding activity of May will be the Mammoth Card Party to be held in Holy Rosary Hall, Friday, May 9. Table prizes will be offered. Emery C. Pixley heads the Card Party Committee.
