

AOH Forms New Division, Plans Initiation Sunday

A rejuvenated Ancient Order of Hibernians has resulted in the formation of a new Division and the first initiation of new members the Order has held since the beginning of the year. The initiation is planned for Sunday afternoon, April 20, at 2:30 p. m. in the Sheraton Hotel.

The newly formed Division comprised of younger men and including returned service men will receive its charter. The group will be initiated in a body.

In preparation for the afternoon's ceremony members of the A.O.H. and Ladies Auxiliaries, their families and friends will have their annual Corporate Communion in Old St. Mary's Church at 8 a. m.

The new division which came into existence largely through the efforts of the Rev. Michael P. O'Brien, County A.O.H. Chaplain and spiritual director of the new unit has Martin M. Brophy for president. Other officers are: Vice President, John O'Brien; Secretary, Richard Welch; Treasurer, Robert Hanley; Financial Secretary, Joseph Brophy, Chairman of Standing Committee, Robert O'Brien; and Marshall, William Baker. Sentinel, Stephen Hickey; Chairman of Irish History, Chris Penrose.

Attending the Initiation Ceremony will be the Rev. Charles J. Bruton, former County Chaplain; State President Edward O'Neill of Syracuse, and Dennis Connolly, President Onondaga County Board also of Syracuse.

One of the largest gatherings of Hibernians in recent years is expected. Members of the Ladies Auxiliaries and their friends are invited. The ceremony is open to all interested in the work of the Order.

All men of Irish Catholic birth or descent are being invited to join the organization. The new division is planning on conducting modern and square dance primarily to get young people of Irish origin interested in Irish dances and music.

The next regular meeting of the newly organized division is set for Thursday, April 24, at Grand Webster Hall. Those interested in joining may contact President Martin Brophy, 274 Alameda St., Glenwood 2573-M, or Father O'Brien at St. Thomas Church, Summerville.

The two original Divisions in the A.O.H. are numbered 2 and 7 and the Ladies Auxiliaries Nos. 1 and 2.

Novena to St. Gerard Majella Opens April 28 at St. Joseph

A public novena in honor of St. Gerard Majella, "the Mother's Saint", will be conducted Monday permanently at St. Joseph's Church, Franklin St., Rochester beginning Monday, April 28 at 8 p. m., the Rev. Father, Father Burke in charge.

St. Gerard is also widely known as the patron of "Good Combs" and also of working men, the priests state.

Opening the Rochester series of Novenas will be the Rev. Thomas Reha, C.S.B., of St. Thomas Church, Pittsburgh when a permanent Novena in honor of St. Gerard is underway.

In charge of the novena opening in Rochester is the Rev. George Hines, C.S.B., of St. Joseph's Church. Novena services will include a prayer for a blessed Parenthood and the blessing with the robe of St. Gerard.

Models and Novena booklets for the services may be obtained at St. Joseph's Church where a similar Novena is being conducted also in Buffalo.

St. Gerard Majella was born in April 1726 in Marco, about fifty miles south of Naples in Italy. He was canonized by Pius IX, Dec. 11, 1864. As a member of the Redemptorists his life was such that St. Alphonsus considered him a model of holiness. When he accompanied the Fathers on missions, he was sent out on missions, he accompanied them on missions, he accompanied them on missions.
