A supper for 45 parents and friends was served by the parish's newly organized girl scouts. Guests included Jim MacCoy, Field Executive of Ganargua District; Levi Lanzetta, District Camping Chairman; Roy Martin, Neighborhood Commissioner; Raymond Hughes, District Commissioner and Lloyd Hahn, Eagle Scout and 10 year veteran who encouraged the Scouts in their program, citing the value in later life.

Holy Cross Men To Hear Coach

The Men's Club of Holy Cross Church will be host to the men of the parish and their sons at their meeting Sunday, Apr. 21 when Coach Harry Wright of Aquinas Institute will be speaker.

Mr. Wright will follow his talk with notices of the Detroit Central High-Aquinas football game in Red Wing Stadium last fall.

State of officers for the coming year will be presented at this meeting by the nominating committee. Elections will take place at the May meeting.

The men of the club heard a recent talk by Rev. Lawrence H. Casey, pastor, on his trip to Rome, as guest of Cardinal Moonan. He also showed sound movies of the journey and the ceremony at the Vatican at which 20 new cardinals were raised.

Interlaken Altar Gift Of Marines in Pacific

Interlaken—A new altar erected through the generosity of the Catholic men of the 13th and 22nd Marine Aircraft Groups and their chaplain, Rev. Leonard A. Kelly, has been placed in St. Francis Solanus Church here.

The altar has been dedicated to Our Lord in the Blessed Sacrament in gratitude for the safe return of the Marine aviators.

Father Kelly, pastor of St. Francis Solanus, offered the first Mass at the new altar on Easter Sunday for the repose of the souls of the boys of these groups who gave their lives in the Pacific, and for the intentions of all the men whose generous made erection of the altar possible.
